PLUMMER AND WHOLE REPUBLICAN TICKET WIN IN ALLEGHENY COUNTY

GOODBY!

BIGELOW MACHINE RECEIVES KNOCKOUT BLOW AT HANDS OF VOTERS OF THE COUNTY

The Entire Republican Ticket Has Been Elected by Pluralities of from 6,000 to 6,500—Citizens Carry Pittsburgh.

PLUMMER GIVEN GOOD LEAD

The Republican party has won a great victory in Allegheny county. J. Lee Plummer, the candidate for state treasurer, was given the largest plurality he received anywhere in the state, and the entire local ticket has been elected by pluralities of from 6,000 to 6,500. The Plummer plurality will be much larger.

James A. Clark will be the minority member of the board of county commissioners. He was the Democratic nominee on the fusion ticket, and is now serving his third term as commissioner. The returns indicate he has defeated Alexander Dempster, the Bigelow candidate, by a big majority.

County Chairman Thomas J. Ford and City Chairman Max G. Leslie left the Republican headquarters at 2 a. m. The result had, of course, been known long before, but the chairmen waited to hear from certain districts, so as to arrive at an approximate calculation of the Republican majority. Chairman Ford said:

"The Republican majority in Allegheny is at least 2,000; the Republican majority in the Sixth, Seventh and Eighth legislative districts is about 6,000. The returns are not very full, but from present indications that result will not be changed materially. The majority in the Sixth district is about 2,000, the majority in the Seventh is the same, and in the Eighth the figure is the same, as between all the candidates on both tickets, except that O'Neil for recorder ran 700 ahead of his ticket in McKeesport. The majorities, then, in Allegheny and the three legislative districts aggregate 8,000. The Citizens majority in Pittsburgh is probably 1,500, and cannot be more than 2,000, leaving the Republican ticket a majority of 6,000 to 6,500 in the whole county.

"Allegheny is normally a Republican city and has therefore returned to its own. I have no doubt that the change can be largely ascribed to the dissatisfaction of the people with the conditions existing there. The reduction of the Citizens majority in Pittsburgh can be ascribed to the same reasons."

City Chairman Leslie does not believe that the Citizens majority in Pittsburgh will be more than 1,500. In 113 districts out of 247 in Pittsburgh there was a Republican gain of 663, about 6 to the district, and if that gain should be maintained in the returns still to come in, the Citizens majority will be about 1,500.

NORTH SIDE BREAKS THE FETTERS OF WYMANISM

Republican Majority Will Be at Least 2,000 for the State and County Tickets.

Allegheny will give the Republican ticket, both state and county, a majority of at least 2,000 votes. It is a landslide. I made an estimate of 2,000 last night and I have no reason for modifying it. When all returns are in our majority may be closer to 3,000. There was a lot of cutting done and there are more split tickets than ever before. Plummer will win and Fairman is running away ahead of O'Neil. The Republican workers and voters deserve to be congratulated on the fine victory.

ELLIOTT RODGERS.

We have not complete reports in, but I think Allegheny will give the Citizens ticket a majority of about 500. We can't tell yet.

R. H. JACKSON.

These statements were made shortly before last midnight by the leaders of the Republican and Citizens parties of Allegheny city.

Victory alighted last night on the banner of the Republicans of Allegheny. The city gave at least 2,000 majority to the Republican state and county ticket, and this figure will likely be increased when all the returns are in.

Wards that have given Citizens majorities in the past three years were reversed by the tide of public sentiment against the Wyman administration. The failure of the Enterprise bank, which was charged to the Republican party by politicians, had not any perceptible effect on the result. The Sixth ward, in which the bank is located, went for the Republicans by a plurality of 305. Only two districts out of eight in the Sixth ward were lost by the Republicans. In the ward are hundreds of men who were depositors in the Enterprise bank.

The Third ward, in which Director Thomas B. Scandrett lives, gave the Republicans a majority of over 400, and the Fourth ward, where Councilman John W. Robinson and his brother, Andrew L., the Allegheny city treasurer, reside, rolled up 417 majority for the Republican ticket. Only one district in nine was lost.

Office-Holders Beaten at Home.

In the Eleventh ward, the home of City Solicitor S. G. Porter and Ordinance Officer William Penwell, the Republicans won by several hundred. Porter and Penwell lost their districts. Director Scandrett did not carry his. The Seventh ward, the home of Conrad G. Mentel, returned a Republican majority, and the Republican ticket won in the Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth and Fourteenth wards.

No returns were sent in from the First ward at a late hour last night and only one or two precincts of the Second were heard from. The Second is the home of Mayor Wyman and at least 100 city employes worked all day at the polling places. From returns at midnight it was anybody's victory, and Wyman won in his own district, the Thirteenth, where 22 city employes were stationed all day.

The Twelfth ward was won by the Citizens by 151 votes. They won the Thirteenth and perhaps the Fifteenth. The Ninth ward furnished a big surprise. It is normally a Democratic ward, and not

CITY PARTY WINS PHILADELPHIA ELECTION

The County Ticket Is Given a Majority of 40,000 and Berry 25,000.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Complete returns from every ward in the city give the City party candidate for sheriff, 148,679, and the Republican candidate 105,346, a plurality for the City party of 43,333. Berry, fusion candidate for state treasurer, carried the city over Plummer, Republican, by 36,037 plurality.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—The City party county ticket is elected. This was conceded at 11 o'clock tonight by Republican leaders. Their estimate gave the opposition a plurality of 10,000. It will probably be much larger. Franklin S. Edmonds, chairman of the City party, says the "reform" ticket will have a margin of 68,000.

Incomplete returns hardly justify such prediction, but there is tangible evidence of a landslide, and if it materializes the majority may even be greater.

Biggest Vote on Record.

Many believe that complete returns will show that the total vote polled today breaks all records; 289,000 votes were polled when Roosevelt was elected; there are 339,000 names on the assessors' lists; probably 300,000 of these voted. In many wards over half of the vote was polled before 10 o'clock. The weather was perfect. Serious disorders were confined to half-dozen downtown wards, though the display of police strength was everywhere in evidence.

The Republican organization of Philadelphia, for years regarded as one of the strongest political units in the country, has met its first defeat. It is a crushing one. As now constituted it will hardly make another fight. There must be a period of "reconstruction." Some leaders will voluntarily retire, others have been retired. Almost every ward leader stood by his colors today and fought to save the organization. They will not do it again. There must be a new deal first. Practical politicians tonight say that while the police program today was the most brutal and outrageous in the city's history, the fact has little bearing on the future. They have used police clubs themselves and have something akin to admiration for an enemy which can surpass them in making use of this political utility.

Some of the Republican leaders failed to carry their wards. David H. Lane is one of these, Mercantile Appraiser Devlin another. Lane controlled the Twentieth ward, Devlin the Eighth, which is also the home of Senator Penrose. Plummer has a small plurality in both wards. The Tenth, the home of Senator James J. McNichol, as well as the Seventh, the home of Israel W. Durham, gave Republican majorities. Insurance Commissioner David Martin, who expected a Republican majority of 3,000 in the Nineteenth, his home ward, lost, the City party claiming it by 1,000. Martin has been one of the active managers of the present fight. Senator Penrose, McNichol, Durham and Martin planned and conducted the campaign. Unexpected to them is the result, all expressing to the

FINISHING BLOW TO NEW JERSEY DEMOCRATS

A Republican Victory Assures John P. Dryden His Seat in United States Senate.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 7.—The election in New Jersey today increased the Republican hold on the state legislature and makes it impossible a Democrat should succeed United States Senator John P. Dryden in 1907.

In the state senate the Republicans made a gain of three, electing Republicans from Gloucester, Salem and Somerset counties, which for the last three years have had Democratic senators. Only four of the 21 state senators will be Democrats.

Colby, the Independent Republican in Essex county, whose fight against the machine of his party attracted wide interest, was swept into office by a majority which approached that which his county gave a year ago when the local ticket had the help of the national ticket to carry it along. At a late hour it looked as if Mr. Colby won by not less than 19,000, and his majority may go over that. He carried his ticket through with him.

The Republican wave swept into Jersey City again, and Mayor Fagan, who is an Independent Republican of the Colby stripe, was again elected, and carried his ticket through with him.

J. M. GUFFEY IS PLEASED.

Congratulates the People of Pennsylvania on the Election of William H. Berry as Treasurer.

Col. J. M. Guffey made the following statement last night:

The election of William H. Berry, a Democrat, treasurer of Pennsylvania by such a splendid majority does honor and credit to her good citizens in every walk of life.

The lesson of today means the beginning of the end of the greatest and most corrupt machine ever conceived in American politics. It means that the debauchery of the people's money in the state treasury, the days of ballot box-stuffing, the enactment of venal legislation and the election of corrupt men to places of honor and trust, is over. It means that common honesty and civic decency are now to have a hearing.

It means that Pennsylvania, the greatest of them all, will re-establish her honor and integrity and again assume her former honored place in the union of states.

GIVES MILLIONS TO HOME FOR OLD MEN

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Chicago will have the largest and most generously endowed home for old men in the world when the provisions of the will of James C. King, a wealthy merchant who died a few days ago, are carried into effect. The estate amounts to $7,500,000, and after the payment of certain bequests amounting to $800,000, the balance of the estate is left as an endowment for a home for old men.

ONE LONE DEMOCRAT REACHES THE GOAL

With His Exception, Republicans Make Clean Sweep in Chicago and Cook County.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The Republicans made a clean sweep of the election in Chicago and Cook county today, electing all of their candidates, with the exception of one man. The sole Democrat to reach the promised land was Webb, a candidate for trustee of the sanitary district.

The Republicans elected four judges of the superior court by pluralities ranging from 20,000 to 25,000; one judge to fill a vacancy on the bench of the superior court, by a plurality of about 1,000; a judge of the circuit court by 10,000 and eight out of nine members of the board of sanitary trustees by pluralities ranging from 1,000 to 5,000.

A number of important questions were up for consideration by the voters, and all of them were carried by large majorities. They include an amendment to the charter of the city by virtue of which the term of the mayor of the city is lengthened from two to four years; the right of the city to regulate the price of gas, and authority to operate an electric light plant and sell to private consumers all of the current not used for municipal purposes.

Ambassador Reid Sends First One Thousand Dollars for McKinley Memorial.

CANTON, O., Nov. 7.—Ambassador Whitelaw Reid has sent the first money for the McKinley memorial fund. A draft for $1,000 has just been received from him by Justice William R. Day, who is president of the McKinley National Memorial association.

It is the purpose of the trustees of the association to raise an endowment fund of $50,000, and plans will be made to that end November 16 when the trustees will meet here to lay the cornerstone of the monument.

LITTLE KANAWHA SYNDICATE BUYS 30,000 ACRES OF COAL

It was stated in Fairmont, W. Va., yesterday, that the interests identified with the Little Kanawha syndicate, now controlled by the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio railroads, had bought 30,000 acres more coal. It lies along the route of the Buckhannon & Northern railroad, one of the Little Kanawha lines. The old syndicate already owned 60,000 acres of coal in the Fairmont district.

HERRICK VICTORY IS CLAIMED BY GEN. DICK

Returns Are Meager Because of the Large Number of Scratched Ballots.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—(2 a. m.)—The State Journal has estimated pluralities from 63 out of the 88 counties in the state showing a net plurality of 820 for Herrick for governor. The Republican pluralities are 31,670 and the Democratic pluralities 30,850.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—At 11 o'clock tonight the Democratic leaders in this state claimed the election of Pattison and the entire Democratic ticket by substantial pluralities, while the Republicans simply refused to concede such a claim, insisting that the returns were insufficient at that hour to indicate anything except that the vote had been very heavy and that the amount of scratching had made the counting slow. In the cities the Republican loss exceeded 100 to the precinct, but as the loss per precinct outside of the large cities was so far as reported only about 30 there was no certainty that the loss would run high enough to wipe out the 230,000 Republican plurality with which comparisons were made. Less than 300 of the 4,200 precincts had been heard from at 11 o'clock.

Myron T. Herrick.

It had been expected that in view of the bitter fight that was made on Gov. Herrick personally he would run behind his ticket, but up to midnight he was running two votes to the precinct ahead of Col. Harris, the Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, who was expected to poll the average party vote. If this is continued throughout the state it would indicate that the bitterness of the attack on Herrick had apparently reacted in his favor and gained him votes instead of losing them. The early reports, though very meager, were so strongly in favor of Pattison that his election was bulletined and announced in many of the extras, but as fuller returns came in showing reduced ratio of gains the Republicans became more hopeful and the Democrats refused to give out any statement although they still maintained that they had gained a notable victory.

Early in the night reports from Cincinnati were to the effect that Hamilton county, which has been counted on by the Republicans to give 20,000 plurality for Herrick, had gone for Pattison, but at midnight a private message from George B. Cox to Governor Herrick announced that Hamilton county had given the governor 3,500 plurality. The 8,000 or more given by Cuyahoga county for Pattison was close to what had been anticipated by Republican Chairman Dick, his poll announced last week giving that county to Pattison by 5,000.

As to the legislature little in the way

REPUBLICANS ARE JUBLIANT OVER BIG VICTORY

Tide Against Bigelow-Hays-Wyman Machine Sweeps Over the Entire County.

A jubilant crowd, intensely enthusiastic over the great victory achieved for the Republican ticket, thronged the headquarters in Grant street several hours after midnight. At midnight there was no question about the result, the only thing in doubt being the size of the Republican majorities. At that hour Chairman Ford gave a minimum estimate of 6,500 as the plurality in the county, while City Chairman Leslie said it would not be less than 8,500.

The enthusiasm of the throng at headquarters never waned and its interest never flagged, although the news of Republican gains and triumphs all along the line came in with monotonous regularity. From the start to the end the news from every ward in Pittsburgh and Allegheny and outside of the cities was of the same character, either large majorities or big gains for the Republican ticket.

Close Shave for Hays.

Mayor W. B. Hays had a close shave in his home district, the First of the Sixth ward. The first news was he had lost the precinct. It later developed he had carried it by about six votes. Representative L. B. Cook lives in the district. He had charge of the Republican fight in the ward and made a great showing.

The crowd almost went wild when a bulletin from the Nineteenth ward was read, announcing that Director Bigelow had lost his district and that he would also lose his ward.

"That settles it," was the audible comment of the audience.

Even the most sanguine had not expected a victory so crushing to the Bigelow-Hays-Wyman machine.

"Bob Mattern and Chairman Woods of the Citizens county committee have lost their district in the Twenty-second ward," and there was another loud cheer.

Then came the big Twentieth ward with reports of an immense gain for the Republicans with the prospect that they would carry the ward which has, heretofore, been one of the strongholds of the Citizens party.

Switch in the Twentieth.

James W. Clark is the chairman of the Citizens organization in this ward, and his supporters have always claimed that he held it in the hollow of his hand. John A. Murphy sent word to headquarters that the Citizens majority of two years ago would be changed to a Republican majority.

From the Twenty-first, another of the big wards upon which the Citizens were counting to give a majority of 1,000 or more for them, came the news that the Citizens would not carry the ward by over 150. The Fourteenth, another big ward, in which W. H. Stevenson, the leader of the Orphans resides, reported a big Republican vote.

The Citizens got another crushing blow in the Thirteenth ward, which holds a larger representation on the city payroll than any other ward in the city. They counted this ward good for a majority of 900 to 1,000 votes, but the highest estimate of the Citizens managers at midnight was considerably less than half that figure.

Big Majority in First.

Even the downtown wards furnished a bitter disappointment for the Citizens Bigelow-Hays-Wyman machine. The First ward gave a record-breaking majority for the Republicans and the Citizens majority in the Second ward, where there was much fraudulent voting and where "Buck" Wallace's policemen "roughed it" to the limit the Citizens vote was reduced beyond all expectations.

The Republicans held their own in the Third ward and made a big gain in the Fourth. About the only spots where they made gains were in the Seventh and Eighth wards, where the increase was so slight as to hardly be noticeable.

In this fashion the Republicans reported gains all along the line, downtown, Oakland, East End, Hazelwood and the South Side. The result in the Twenty-third was another heart-breaker for the Citizens. This they confidently expected by a large majority. Instead Former State Senator W. A. Magee, the chairman of the Republican ward organization, reported early a sweeping Republican victory that made the hearts of the crowd at headquarters sing with joy.

Great Victory for Magee.

The result in this ward was due largely to the untiring efforts of Mr. Magee, who opposed undaunted the Baltimore & Ohio, which ordered its men in against the Republican ticket.

City Chairman Leslie produced for the Republican ticket one of the biggest majorities ever cast in the Seventeenth ward, the gain amounting to several hundred votes.

The South Side kept up the pace. The Thirtieth, and there is no stronger Democratic ward in the city, gave a stunning gain for the Republican ticket.

The Thirty-second ward also swung in the Republican procession. The Twenty-ninth and Twenty-eighth excelled themselves, and so along the entire South Side. The baby ward, the Thirty-ninth, formerly the borough of Elliott, showed its displeasure of the Bigelow machine rule by reducing a majority of several hundred for the Citizens ticket last February to one of just 12 votes yesterday.

The greatest enthusiasm was created by the glowing reports sent to the county headquarters by former Judge Elliott Rodgers, who was managing the Republican campaign in Allegheny. Judge Rodgers sent over to the city, early in the evening, word that the Republicans would carry 11 of the 15 wards of the North Side, and the crowd yelled itself hoarse.

In Manchester District.

The greatest interest was centered in the reports from the Manchester district, where the Enterprise bank is located, and when the Fifth and Sixth wards in that district reported that the Republicans had swept everything there was no limit to the enthusiasm.

The same story came from the country districts. McKees Rocks reported early that it had reversed the Citizens majority of two years ago to a Republican majority of 200.

As Aspinwall voters showed what it thought of Director Bigelow's scheme of annexing the borough to the city for the purpose of voting the filtration employes for his mayoralty ticket next February by casting for the Republican ticket one of the largest votes in its history. The same was true of Sharpsburg, Etna, where Chairman Ford resides, and other points. Braddock gave a majority equal to the one of two years ago, when Major Stewart, a resident of the town, was a candidate.

The returns from the districts outside of the two cities were very meager at midnight, but they were sufficient to show that the Republican gains were uniform throughout the county. The reports from the Pittsburgh districts were scattering, few wards being complete, but the gains were all of such a nature as to enable the managers to form a safe estimate.

THE VOTE IN PITTSBURGH AS SHOWN BY PRECINCTS

The returns from the 247 election districts in the city of Pittsburgh show as a rule, that the interest taken in yesterday's election was general and that a big vote was cast. In nearly all of the wards the counting of the vote proceeded slowly, the cutting that was done accounting for this feature in large part. Up to the hour this edition goes to press the vote as reported in detail is as follows:

LAWRENCE COUNTY HAS ANOTHER BIG TURN OVER

Berry Wins by Big Majority, but Republicans Gather in Everything Else.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

NEW CASTLE, PA., Nov. 7.—Lawrence county normally Republican by 2,000 gave Berry a majority over Plummer estimated at probably over 2,000, upon the votes of 30 of the 62 precincts reported at midnight.

The balance of the Republican state ticket won out with large majorities.

Lafayette Baldwin, Republican, for county treasurer, wins over P. S. Pike, Democrat, and Frank L. Bigham of Ellwood, Republican, receiving as many votes as both his opponents. James A. McMillan of this city and John F. Pitts, Republicans, and John G. McConahy, Democrat, are elected county commissioners.

The hottest fight of the day was for prothonotary and clerk of courts, between Charles H. Andrews, Republican, and Robert H. Hainer, Prohibitionist-fusionist. The indications at midnight are that Andrews will win out by a small majority, 22 precincts reported giving him a lead of about 200.

M'CLELLAN WINS BARREN VICTORY

Elected Mayor by Narrow Margin, but Jerome Also Goes Back to Office.

HEARST ANNOUNCES CONTEST

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—1:45 a. m.—Returns at this hour are complete in Greater New York with the exception of 51 districts, scattered through the city. The vote on these returns gives McClellan 221,815, Hearst 218,657, Ivins 132,317, a plurality for McClellan of 3,158.

The county vote of New York with 46 election districts missing gives Jerome a plurality of 3,525.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—George B. McClellan is re-elected mayor of New York city by a plurality so small as to make his victory only a personal triumph for himself; in its moral effect it is a smashing defeat for Tammany hall, rich to overflowing with party significance.

The anti-boss, independent sentiment of the voters of the city, represented by the Municipal Ownership ticket, completely obliterated party lines; left Mr. Ivins, the Republican nominee for mayor, a humiliating third, and very nearly swamped the combined vote of Tammany hall and the business Republicans.

William Travers Jerome is elected district attorney by a small plurality, after one of the most remarkable and dramatic campaigns in history, and in spite of being mixed up in a four-cornered fight, which gave him the triple handicap of machine opposition, treachery in influential circles and the extreme difficulties of having many more than 100,000 voters intelligently split their tickets.

GEORGE B. M'CLELLAN.
Re-elected Mayor of New York as Tammany Candidate.

More than that, the board of aldermen is probably in control of the Republicans, most of whose candidates won by virtue of being also indorsed by the Municipal Ownership party. This has almost been a foregone conclusion ever since the Republicans stole a march on Tammany by getting the indorsement of the independent organization.

On top of all these calamities to the tiger, it has lost control of three of the boroughs in the city government. Coler, the nominee of the Municipal Ownership party in Kings, has been elected borough president; Bremel, the nominee of the Republican and Municipal Ownership parties in Queens has been elected borough president, and Cromwell, Republican, easily leads in Richmond against two competitors. Hence of the five borough presidents Tammany has only been able to save two—Ahern, in Manhattan, and Haffen, in the Bronx.

Such a barren triumph at the polls was never achieved by a political party in this city. Tammany loses the keystone of its arch in New York county through the defeat of James W. Osborne by William T. Jerome. The administration of justice will thus be in independent and fearless hands.

Mr. Hearst declares he was elected. This claim of his managers is based first on the charge that he lost a great many votes in the balloting, the intent of the voter being disregarded. Second, he says he lost a very large number of votes in the count, through collusion between the Republican and Democratic election boards. Third, he says that at least 30,000 illegal votes were cast for the Tammany nominee. He had hundreds of men searching the city tonight for the returns of missing election districts. He asserts every ballot that got into the ballot boxes will be scrutinized and his contest will be taken to the courts.

Returns to midnight indicate McClellan's plurality is between 3,000 and 4,000, while that of Jerome is about 8,000.

At midnight Mr. Hearst declined to admit his defeat, and declared his intention to contest the election. The following statement was issued by him:

"We have won this election. All Tammany's friends, all Tammany's corruption, all Tammany's intimidation and violence, all Tammany's false registration, illegal voting and dishonest count, have not been able to overcome a great popular majority. The recount will show that we have won the election by many thousands of votes. I shall fight this battle to the end, in behalf of the people who have cast their votes for men, and who shall not be disfranchised by any effort of criminal bosses."

District Attorney Jerome issued a statement tonight in which he said:

"I was certain the people would not back up the attempt of the bosses to force me from office. Coming as it does straight from the hands of the people, in spite of the opposition of bosses and machines, my election is peculiarly gratifying. The district attorney's office will go on for four years more under my direction, under the same system that has prevailed for four years."

Mayor McClellan issued the following statement:

"The result of the election shows me more plainly than ever my duty to the people. With God's help I will discharge it to the best of my ability. I shall keep every promise made before election."

An analysis of the vote for mayor shows that Hearst polled a little more than 200,000 votes, and that apparently these votes were drawn almost equally from the Democratic and Republican parties. McClellan's vote this year was about 110,000 smaller than his vote of two years ago, while Ivins' vote was about 125,000 smaller than Low's vote of two years ago. The figures, however, may not be entirely accurate, owing to the fact that a number of Republicans probably voted for McClellan in order to aid in the defeat of Hearst.

Hearst's large vote shows the Municipal Ownership league must be reckoned with as a factor in the city's politics. Coler's election as president of the borough of Brooklyn gives the league representation on the board of estimate and apportionment, which has control of the city's expenditures. It is estimated this board will direct the outlay of $300,000,000 during the next four years.

Mr Ivins said early in the evening: "I really have little to say except that I am the happiest defeated candidate you ever saw."

Wednesday, November 8, 1905.

In the United States court the petition of Mrs. Cassie Chadwick was refused in Cincinnati yesterday. This leaves the notorious bank sharp under sentence of 10 years in prison. Good behavior will reduce the term materially, but before it expires it may be hoped the bankers, rural and urban, will have cut their wisdom teeth.

Massachusetts has reacted from the Douglas aberration by a decisive majority. Guild is elected governor by a handsome plurality and the lieutenant governor by nearly the same figures. The difference in their attitudes toward the tariff does not seem to have been potent in the election. The platform evidently satisfied Massachusetts sentiment.

Anarchists are the regular accompaniments of royal meetings in Europe so it is not surprising the German police picked up three at Madgeburg. The anarchist is a menace and should be dealt with summarily. His idea of reform is indiscriminate murder of the reigning monarch and the bystanders. If he had his way conditions would be absolutely intolerable. There is no room on this earth for the anarchist and the sooner he gets off the better.

Maryland rose nobly to its opportunity, defeated the Poe disfranchisement amendment by an overwhelming majority and gave notice it desires no more Gormanism. Senator Gorman declared during the campaign he would retire from politics if the Poe amendment should pass. Maryland voters preferred to retire him involuntarily by defeating the amendment. This result is a distinct victory for decent politics and does great credit to Maryland.

Count Witte confesses himself powerless to stem the tide of Russian rebellion. He has given the zemstvoists a pledge to support a measure for a constituent assembly elected by universal suffrage, if one member of the douma will propose it, but he declines to declare it on imperial authority. Meantime the zemstvoists withhold their support from his program. Ivan Petrunkevitch, president of the Moscow zemstvo and leader of the zemstvoist element, stands firm for constitution, constituent assembly and universal suffrage.

While there was some interference with voters on the part of the police and Citizens party workers, together with occasional display of high-handed methods, no serious conflicts occurred at the polls. The plans of the police administration were materially subdued by the knowledge that county officers were ready to suppress lawlessness and the courts sitting to pass on cases. The police administration did all it could to interfere with citizens' rights without coming into serious conflict with the law. None of the cases taken into court were of the first magnitude.

The experiment in shortening the college course which President Butler is about to make at Columbia will be watched with interest. A new program of studies has been adopted providing for two new courses of less than three years each, one leading to the degree of bachelor of arts, the other to the degree of bachelor of science. The new system, it is said, will enable the student to measure his educational progress not by years but by "points." It has long been a favorite theory of President Eliot of Harvard that many students spend too long over their college course. President Butler, it seems, will provide a practical remedy.

The danger in "Buck" Wallace's policy of removing police protection from the downtown thoroughfares in order to utilize members of the force in intimidating voters at the polls was strikingly illustrated during the rush hour late yesterday afternoon at the busy corner of Fifth avenue and Wood street. The tangle of traffic, which could have been straightened out by a single cornerman, not only endangered life and limb, but impeded the street cars and progress of all vehicles. Pedestrians waited along the curb for a chance to cross, and unescorted women were subjected to long delays. But "Buck" considered it his business not to see that the force did the duty for which it is paid, but to make the police bring in 10 votes each. And how could they do this and stick to their beats?

A Splendid Victory.

Every Republican in Allegheny county has reason to be gratified with the election here. The county has given a pronounced majority for the Republican state ticket and has elected the whole county ticket by pluralities greater than those of two years ago, despite the desperate efforts of the Citizens machine in Pittsburgh and Allegheny to win by foul means.

This result is especially gratifying because it presages the redemption of the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny from the plundering combination now in control. It is positive proof of the ability of the voters of this county to distinguish between real and sham principles. The fact that Republicans here stood up so well for their candidate for state treasurer indicates they understood the Enterprise bank affair in all its bearings better than it was understood farther from the scene.

Allegheny county has reason to be proud of its achievement.

The State Treasury.

While it appears the Republican candidate for state treasurer has been defeated in Pennsylvania, the party prospect is not discouraging. The Gazette needs not to dwell on the combination of circumstances that has effected J. Lee Plummer's overthrow; the people know them and will understand their misleading features better in the future. The Gazette is confident if Mr. Plummer had been elected he would have given a good administration of treasury affairs, being honest and capable. He would have favored reforms wherever needed.

It will not be denied reforms are needed in the management of the treasury. These need not wait six months for the induction into office of Mr. Berry or Mr. Plummer. They should be undertaken at once by the Republican officials at Harrisburg under the direction of Gov. Pennypacker, in whose integrity the people of the state have implicit confidence. Gov. Pennypacker should order a complete investigation of the treasury resources and condition. If any one has been guilty of illegal practices he should be arraigned and punished. Whatever is wrong in the system should be remedied by suitable legislation.

These measures are as essential to the rehabilitation of the Republican party in the respect and confidence of the people as for the protection of the interests of the state. The Gazette has never recognized any necessity for calling in any Democrat to help effect these reforms and does not now. The Republican party is big enough and great enough to purge itself of unworthy members; it is capable of eliminating abuses. Now the campaign is over and political animosities will cool. The Gazette suggests to Gov. Pennypacker to take measures at once.

Herrick Elected.

Apparently Myron T. Herrick is reelected for governor of Ohio by a greatly diminished plurality. The mongrel Democratic-Anti-Saloon coalition came nearer to winning than it should have on the merits of the situation. The belief that Herrick was, in some mysterious manner, responsible for Boss Cox could not be dissipated, even by the forceful oratory of Secretary Taft. Cox, on the other hand, lost Cincinnati by a large majority. No one may know whether by design or not.

In Ohio the encouraging feature is the proclamation of Boss Cox that he is out of politics. If he had retired sooner the result of the election would have been different. The people of Ohio can probably be trusted to give force to his words.

Tom L. Johnson has won again in Cleveland, and as Pattison was his candidate this will confirm his dominance of the Buckeye Democracy. Johnson is no less a boss than Cox, though his methods are better masked. He is of genial personality, and, being immensely wealthy, has been able to supply the sinews of war without drawing heavily on public employes. His bossism, however, is merely less offensive in degree than that of Cox. It may now become more arrogant.

The Inauguration Date.

After years of agitation of the project to change the presidential inauguration date from March 4 to one at a more clement season of the year, there seems to be a crystallizing of sentiment which augurs definite action. At the coming meeting of state governors at Washington it is expected resolutions will be adopted urging an amendment to the constitution providing for the desired reform. Several substitute dates have been suggested. It is apparent the day must be fixed for either spring or fall. All who can flee from Washington in the summer, and a winter day would not suit at all for the open-air ceremony in which the President stands with bared head. April seems to meet with the most favor, though early May has its advocates.

In this connection attention has been called to the lapse of 13 months between the presidential election and the next regular session of congress as calling for adjustment. As the Washington Star points out, a problem is involved. "To accomplish a January meeting immediately following the election it would be necessary to extend or curtail the term of one congress by a session. The project of an immediate meeting of congress in the winter following election also affects the process of presidential election, for the retiring congress is final judge of the vote cast for the President and vice president." Congress ought to meet sooner after its election. The date of inauguration should be changed, or the ceremony simplified to avoid exposure of thousands to rough weather.

New York Is Closer

William Hearst has polled a tremendous vote for mayor of Greater New York on the Municipal Ownership ticket. McClellan's majority is narrow. We do not believe this signifies an earnest sentiment for actual municipal operation of public utilities, but it does mean the people of the metropolis are ready to assert their right to control the public property and receive a fair compensation for its use. In any event there has been a warm protest against Tammany, regardless of the personal decency of its candidate, Mayor George B. McClellan.

Tammany apparently made a stronger effort to defeat William Travers Jerome, for district attorney, than to re-elect Mayor McClellan. Mr. Jerome was a thorn in the Tammany flesh during his term as public prosecutor and his announcement of his independent candidacy was a terrible shock to the machine. It realized his election would set a new precedent in independent political action and trained all its guns on him. Nevertheless, Jerome has won by 8,000.

Altogether the New York vote is distinctly encouraging. The Hearst personality is not inspiring, but it has been demonstrated the combined anti-Tammany forces are vastly in the majority. Good government is attainable whenever its friends can agree on details and get together in the voting.

A Silly Spectacle.

Tomorrow afternoon Broadway, New York, will witness a parade of the Anti-Anglo-American Alliance league as a protest against the entertainment of the officers of the British squadron under command of Prince Louis of Battenberg. For some reason or other, Police Commissioner McAdoo has issued a permit for the parade, the promoters of which should be in one of two places: the jail or the asylum. It is announced the demonstration is "against such expressions of good will toward England" as are connected with the reception to her naval officers. Only 25 persons have been found so deficient in good sense as to be willing to parade, but the affair is none the less an insult to our visitors from abroad and one which will make a far from favorable impression on our English cousins if set forth in yellow style in the London newspapers.

Twisting the lion's tail, which used to be such a popular pastime in this country, especially with orators on the Fourth of July and similar occasions, has gone pretty well out of fashion. There has been a practically general recognition of the fact that no two nations in the world should stand in closer relations than the United States and Great Britain, not only on account of ties of blood, language, and systems of jurisprudence, but because of mutual interests. The action of the New York freaks will be entirely devoid of national significance.

That sound as of a mighty wind is the general sigh of relief from the bankers of the country on learning that Mrs. Chadwick is to stay in prison for a while longer.

A jilted youth in Montreal is suing the girl's father to recover courting expenses. An examination of his gas bills should suggest the proper retaliation to the old man.

The general installation of telephones in church pulpits will enable persons to stay at home and participate in every feature of the service except the collection.

We trust the New York clergyman who says the average Thanksgiving turkey is "tough and tasteless" will figure as defendant in a good, hot, heresy trial.

The insurance investigation will be resumed today, and Mr. Hughes announces his intention of asking some exceedingly embarrassing questions.

The Hon. Robert Fitzsimmons, having recovered the use of his voice, is about to re-enter the active practice of his profession.

If football is not to be reformed the managements of the teams might at least guarantee to players payment of funeral expenses.

QUIET OBSERVATIONS ON WAYS OF WORLD

Matches Are Made in Heaven, and Marriages Here on Earth.

By ERASMUS WILSON.

Quite a difference, don't you think, between matches made in heaven and the marriages arranged here on earth?

Heaven-made matches never fail, for they are made according to the original plan.

Here is another topic for discussion in the clubs which profess to be devoted to the real interests of the people.

What was the original plan? In other words, what did the Master mean when He said: "For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife, and they twain shall be one flesh. Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together let no man put asunder."

What sort of people does God join together? Is it possible under the laws of nature, or God, to join together incompatible elements?

You may mix oil and water, but you cannot join them together so as to make them into one. And no matter how intimately they have been mixed they will separate sooner or later.

This is just as true of incompatible human natures as of any other elements, of which we have abundant proof.

Would it not be worth while to discuss this matter, and get at the truth of it, in the interest of happy marriages which, as we all know, are essential to a good state of society?

Maybe some of our club people, particularly those who are clamoring for a better state of society, will tell us why the marriage question is tabooed by club women?

Mr. Quiet Observer.—I noticed in the Quiet Observation column this question: "What sort of a man do you want for a husband?"

If you will kindly permit me, I would like to express my idea of an ideal husband through this column.

Mostly all girls, or women, when they once begin to think seriously of the marriage question, form an idea of the kind of a man they would like to have. Some want rich husbands, some dream of kind husbands, and some would take anything at all, just so it was a man.

You may laugh when I say that I have had three opportunities to enter the state of matrimony, or you may say that I am boasting, but think what you like, it is true nevertheless, and I am still single and about 23, but feel confident that I will not die an old maid.

My idea of a man who would make a good husband is one who can control his temper when things don't just suit him.

One who shuns the use of profanity.

One who has faith in a Divine Being, and is loyal to his faith.

One who will take the girl he has tenderly courted and marry her to be his wife, not his servant.

One who will reason with his wife when they chance to differ in their opinions rather than think it is not worth while, for he knows best, anyway.

One who will take into consideration the many little household duties which take up a wife's time and not fly up and raise the roof above his head if he finds a button off his shirt.

One who will come to his wife when he is in trouble and explain matters to her and allow her to bear half the burden, and thus avoid a great deal of unpleasantness in the home, for a wife can mostly always tell when her husband's conscience is not clear, but feels a little timid in asking an explanation.

A man who is fond of children, because there can be no home without children, and the baby must be lovingly cared for by both parents. Jesus commanded one of his disciples three times: "If thou lovest me, feed my lambs."

On the other hand, a girl should realize that when she marries a man she is becoming his companion for a lifetime; not until she tires of him. That it is her duty to make him a home and to make it as comfortable and attractive as his income will allow, but not beyond that. She should help him to economize and save for a rainy day. She should be ready to meet him with a smile and a kind word when he comes in from his day's work.

Here I wish to say a word in explanation, that only a working girl I am one who can realize how a smile and a few kind words to greet you when you come tired and weary, will cheer you up.

He will feel more at liberty—and I may say at heart—to relate to you the occurrences of the day in the office, mill, shop, or wherever he may chance to be employed, and thus make the evening meal enjoyable to both.

But she should not stop at this. She should have ready a good book of a cheerful nature, or some good paper, or story to read to him after the evening work is done. Get him interested by reading to him and he will have no desire whatever to go out to spend the evening with the boys.

I may go on telling forever what I would like to have a husband do, but that is not the thing; it is only what it is necessary for him to do to make a home pleasant.

If there were not so many marriages on the installment plan, as you may call it, when the husband and wife are not as I have intimated, there would not be so many divorces. LIZZIE.

Irwin, Pa.

Vermin That Abide in All Cities.

It is evident that even in the great cities of Russia, which are the centers of its civilization, there are large masses of the population who are no more fitted for self-government than our Sioux and Comanche Indians. The first use they make of the loosening of the restraining fetters of despotism is to turn upon the helpless Jews with a fury of carnage, rapine and plundering that can only be paralleled in the annals of savagery. Comanches could have done no worse.—Philadelphia Record.

CHILD VISIONS.

What do little children see
When their eyes look far away
And their fancies seem to be
In some long lost yesterday?
Ah, their eyes, all crystal clear,
Look into the vast beyond
With the rapt gaze of a seer
Finding days that long have dawned.

What do little children see
When a-sudden in their play
They forget the things that be
And gaze far and far away?

What do little children know
That they dream and look out thus?
What road do their fancies go
That is closed and barred to us?
Do they see the pleasant trees
In some other, hidden land,
Hear the songs of birds and bees—
Songs they only understand?

What do little children know?
Do their younger souls divine
There lies all the golden glow
That one day was yours and mine?

What do little children find
When they softly draw apart
On the path the older mind
May not trace, with all its art?
Dimpled hand on dimpled cheek,
Eyes in wondrous vision wide—
Do the little souls then seek
Places that our long years hide?

What do little children find
When their eyes look far and far?
Who of us has yet divined
Where the thoughts of children are?
—W. D. N., in Chicago Tribune.

ELECTION HAS BECOME GOTHAM'S BIG HOLIDAY

Streets Are Crowded With Merrymakers Who Do Not Care How Fight Is Going.

By FRANK A. PARKER.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Election day has come to be one of the greatest of New York's holidays. Today all business seemed to be suspended and the streets were crowded from morning to night with merrymakers, many of whom did not care how the election was going—and certainly no one knew a thing about it until the returns were well in. It was the most uncertain election ever held in Greater New York, and even after 6 p. m. there were three guesses on the mayoralty, with much uncertainty as to which was correct. And yet, it was a reasonably quiet affair this election. One heard all sorts of stories about bribery and repeating and all that sort of thing, which comes with every election, but there was very little trouble visible to the naked eye.

It was a great day for the hotel man. It was necessary to "come early and avoid the rush" if one were inclined to remain downtown to hear the latest news. In this respect, election night is growing to be like New Year's eve, when every hotel and restaurant is crowded to its utmost capacity from 6 p. m. until daylight begins to break, the winners drinking to the health of the successful candidates, and the losers drowning their sorrow.

No Chance to Be Exclusive.

All attempts today to have tables reserved for certain hours were failures. Not even the most exclusive hostelries would grant such a request in the face of the expected rush of business. This condition obtained not only along Broadway and Fifth avenue, but in all the little side streets, and on the lower East Side. All the managers expected a rush of business, and they were prepared to handle it in the best way possible for the repletion of their own purses. In Broadway, especially, were the cafes crowded after the polls closed, and he was a lucky man who could dine in comfort without being jostled by the crowd.

Wine Only on the Bill.

It remained for the Cafe Martin to spring an innovation for election night. Today the restaurant was placarded with signs announcing that "after 9 o'clock, nothing but champagne would be served to guests." That is certainly something new, but it was hardly necessary at this particular place, since after the hour mentioned there is seldom a call for anything but wine. And wine flowed throughout the city. At Rector's for instance, there are 150 tables, usually reserved for four, but tonight six were seated at each table, and everybody was drinking champagne, as befitting the occasion of the celebration.

Excise Law Only a Joke.

Never before has there been such an open disregard for the excise law on election day. Throughout Manhattan, Brooklyn and the Bronx, every side door to a saloon has been wide open to all. There has been no apparent effort to admit only known friends of the place, but everyone who came was welcome. The police were either too busy at the polls or they didn't care, and the "wets" were allowed to have their own way about it. It was a great thing for the political worker. He could run his dupe into the saloon, fill him up with liquor, and practically dictate his vote.

Betting Continued Heavy.

The betting continued heavy all day, with Mayor McClellan and Jerome the big favorites. There were great crowds of men with rolls of money rushing in and out of the Hoffman, the Waldorf, and other places where sporting men gather, looking for chances to place big wagers. Those who predicted the election of McClellan because he was the favorite in the betting, seemed to have forgotten that many odds-on favorites have been beaten before. In 1901, Low was the low man in the betting, and was returned a winner. The next time he ran, in 1903, he was an odds-on favorite, but was easily defeated. This shows how much dependence can be placed in election odds.

McClellan Uses Same Old Pencil.

"I voted with this pencil, the same with which I have voted every time I have run for office." This statement was made by Mayor McClellan as he exhibited a stumpy lead pencil, after emerging from an election booth. Mayor McClellan cast his ballot at 10:23 o'clock in the tailor shop at 90 Sixth avenue. He walked over to the voting place with a friend. The mayor was given ballot No. 223. There are 403 registered voters in the district.

Subway Cold Is Latest.

The "subway cold" is the newest complaint in town. Physicians say almost everybody who uses the subway seems to have it. The symptoms resemble those of influenza of the type that was prevalent in New York 15 years ago, which gave the name "la grippe" to all the colds that followed it. Every day thousands of victims of the "subway cold" may be seen issuing from the underground road waving their handkerchiefs and manifesting other symptoms of distress. They sneeze and they cough and they have an achy feeling in their heads and chests. The new complaint usually runs its course in three to five days.

Diphtheria Closes Four Schools.

Public schools Nos. 59, 60, 64 and 65 in Woodhaven, borough of Queens, have been closed by the board of education because of the prevalence of diphtheria. Pupils suffering from the disease have, it is believed, attended these schools, owing to the failure of local physicians to report the cases, and as a result all of the pupils have been exposed to infection. The schools will not be reopened until they have been thoroughly cleansed, disinfected and fumigated.

MUSTER ROLL OF THE MEN WHO DO SWEAR

There Are Just About 21,053,179 of Them According to a Careful Calculator.

"Just look at this!" exclaimed the man who has a weakness for statistics, pushing to one side a big volume of census reports, a bulletin from the bureau of education and a pile of copies of a religious publication. "In this country are 21,053,179 male persons who swear."

"How did you figure that out?" asked the patient listener.

"It's easy enough," replied the man of many figures. "All you need is to be able to read, add, substract, divide and multiply.

"According to a table in this volume, the male population of the United States in 1900 was 39,059,242. From the same source I learn that there are 21,329,819 men of voting age. At least four-sevenths of these I believe from careful observation are addicted to the use of profane language upon occasion. In other words, 12,188,468 men of 21 or older swear, at least occasionally.

"Deducting the number of males of voting age from the total male population we have left 17,729,423 boys. Very nearly 50 per cent of the schoolboys and fully 100 per cent of the office boys—the whole number conservatively estimated at 8,864,711—cuss. Add this figure to that representing the men who are profane and we have the grand total I quoted in the beginning.

Not Gathered Haphazard.

"I didn't gather these figures in any haphazard fashion," he continued. "I travel extensively and observe closely. In the last two years, particularly, I have made a special study of men who swear, their environment, their habits of life, their general character.

"I meet them on all railway trains, in street cars, in hotel corridors, at lodge meetings, at public dinners. In the main, the men I have heard swear may be regarded as representative American citizens, men who keep their families well and dress neatly.

"Only tonight as I ate my dinner I overheard a rather fashionably attired man who sat near me say to the waiter as he gave his order: 'Rush that now. I'm in a hell of a hurry.' That was easy.

"Only a few hours before I had heard the boss of a street gang cuss his men, and one of the men cussed back as artistically, if a little brokenly. That proved to me that swearing is a cosmopolitan habit.

"A couple of days ago I was on a Broadway surface car, which was blocked by a big truck near Twenty-fourth street. Four men who sat near me and evidently were in a hurry swore in whispers. There were six other men close to me and four of them spoke with an emphasis that excited my suspicion, though not loud enough for me to detect the words they used.

"I saw the motorman's lips move, and I could tell by the way he shook his fist at the truck driver that his language wasn't elegant. Finally, when the car started forward with a jump and we passed the vehicle which had caused the delay, I heard the driver utter an oath.

The Hardest Swearers.

"Every truckman swears. The train newsboy swears, no matter whether he is dilating on the alleged fine points of his oranges or is administering a deserved calldown to the cheap guy who reads 'The James Boys in Missouri' half through and then returns it unbought.

"The average drummer has taken the thirty-third degree when it comes to the artistic use of the word damn. I sat in the smoking compartment of a parlor car coming from Albany the other day and there were four of them there. They took turns telling stories, and the stories which contained the most profane expressions always got the biggest hand.

"In the company was a quiet individual whose solemn dress suggested that he might be a minister. All of the drummers got off at the same station, and then I said to the silent person:

"'This swearing habit—it's regrettable, don't you think?'

"'It's damnable,' he replied.

"And did you ever notice how quickly foreigners who come to this country master our vocabulary of cuss words? They learn profane expressions before they master any others. I know a Swede who speaks just four words in our language. They are 'yes,' 'no,' 'hell,' and 'damn.'"

The statistician paused for breath.

"It's deplorable," ventured his listener. "And the women—how about them?"

"God bless 'em. I hoped you wouldn't bring them into this game," came the reply. "Yes, I've heard of the good-fellow girl, but I haven't had the nerve to figure on her as a wielder of cuss words, and I don't know that I ever will."—New York Sun.

Pen Portrait of Roosevelt.

The very type of popularity is our own President. In every quarter of the land people believe that he means to do the right, that he has no awe for things merely because they are established, and yet that he is not rash with the love of innovation. Mr. Roosevelt is the frankest man who was ever strong in high elective office. He makes remarks every day that in most men would seem the extreme of indiscretion, but they are part of the directness for which he is so widely liked. He has enthusiasm, belief, energy, and so genuine a humanity that to his eye one class of man exists as really as another.—Collier's.

A Peculiar Verdict.

Judge Mack of Chicago, in passing upon the matrimonial troubles of the Rev. Nestor Clarkson and his wife, Mabel, decided to give possession of the children to the wife, with privilege to the father of visiting them once a week. The court, however, expressly required that the father should not pray over the children, "but must act as any father would."—Des Moines Capital.

STORIES FOUND IN THE LOBBIES

Interesting Happenings Concerning the People Who Are Traveling.

"What's the word from New York?"

This was the question asked by a dozen passengers on the St. Louis Limited last night when the train pulled into the Union station. There was a lively hustling for the telegraph office in the waiting room and for the telephone booths. These men telegraphed greetings to their pet candidates in Gotham or called up the Pittsburgh newspapers to get the latest returns from the election in the metropolis. Then they hurried back to the train just in time. The same question was asked by a number of passengers on the Pennsylvania limited which arrived a few minutes after the St. Louis train. The interest was intense.

"I understand you are having a pretty good fight on here in Pittsburgh, too," said one of the New York men. "Well, the election all around is one of more than usual interest. It is a good thing for the country. There is nothing like a big vote for arousing patriotism, even if the voting is not all on the successful side. It shows a good tone for American politics and the voters will select good men. I am glad that the Republicans are winning out here."

Something out of the usual occurred in connection with the election. Robert Hunter of New York telegraphed to the Pennsylvania officers from Altoona to have as complete returns on hand as possible when the St. Louis limited reached Pittsburgh. When the train pulled into the station the first man to step to the platform was Mr. Hunter, and he secured the desired information from the Pennsylvania people at once.

Knox and Sibley Go East.

"What is the latest you have from Allegheny county and the state?" asked Senator P. C. Knox as he walked out of the Union station waiting room to the Philadelphia special last evening. "I have been enjoying a dinner for the past few hours and have not been in touch with the returns since the polls closed."

When Mr. Knox was informed that the returns to that hour gave every promise of the county going Republican, he gave expression to his appreciation of the news by saying:

"Good! Very good, indeed! I am very glad to hear that and I hope the party will win out in the state just as strongly."

Further than this Senator Knox refused absolutely to discuss the political situation or the outcome of the election. He is going to his home at Valley Forge this morning and will go to Philadelphia today. He has been in Pittsburgh since the chamber of commerce banquet last week.

Congressman Joseph C. Sibley passed through the city to Washington, coming in from Oil City in the private Pullman car Riva, on Valley train No. 2, at 6:20 o'clock, enjoying the evening with friends here and leaving for the east on Pennsylvania train No. 4 at 9 o'clock.

Strikes at a Public Abuse.

Mr. Cleveland's letter declining membership on the board of directors of the Thomas B. Reed Memorial association is in an excellent key and his position is excellently taken. In it he strikes just at this time at one of the most serious of public abuses—that of the lending of one's name to matters about which one knows nothing and with which one is not expected to have anything to do. If the position now taken by Mr. Cleveland in this comparatively unimportant matter had been taken some years ago by men of eminence in New York about what have turned out to be public matters of the greatest importance reputations now hopelessly smirched would today be bright as gold.—Washington Star.

POLICE BULLDOZE PEACEFUL VOTERS

Obey to the Letter the Orders to Try to Carry the Election by All Means, Chiefly Foul.

INTIMIDATE HONEST VOTERS

Because desperate men took desperate chances yesterday, the worst election outrages in the history of Pittsburgh were committed by the city administration in its effort to roll up a big majority for the county candidates of the Citizens-Democratic outfit. Voters were intimidated, duly sworn county officers were arrested and held in exorbitant bail for alleged offenses for which ordinarily a forfeit of only $30 is required. All over the city, especially in the downtown and the hill districts, "Buck" Wallace tactics sought to intimidate honest voters and protect repeaters and other illegal voters.

So desperate were the means employed to secure a further lease of life for the city administration by defeating the Republican county ticket, because of the effect such a defeat was expected to have on the future mayoralty election in Pittsburgh; so thoroughly planned were the arrangements of the city administration to nullify the effect of the election if it should go against it, by falsifying the returns after the closing of the polls, even to arresting county detectives who sought to secure an honest vote, that for the first time in the history of the county the courts were kept open until 10 o'clock at night, Judges McClung and Evans sitting to hear complaints.

Ballot Frauds Contemplated.

The plan was to intimidate Republican watchers, to throw them out of the polling places after 7 o'clock, if necessary, that honest ballots might be shifted and dishonest ones substituted in their place.

The gambler, the procurer, the thief, the thug was in evidence in the wards where his presence might count the most; disorderly houses became the political headquarters of the henchmen of the gang and orders were issued from there; speakeasies flourished wide open, whisky flowed like water, and it was a common sight to see Citizens-Democratic watchers leading voters to the private drinking places and then herding them to the polls. Bigelow's $200,000 campaign fund was put to useful, although illegitimate practice, and loafers displayed rolls of bills to account for the activity they displayed in intimidating voters.

Every policeman was bound to get "10 votes," as upon the bosses' belief that he had carried out those orders to produce depended his future stay on the payroll. Each policeman intended to get the votes, whether he had to rough them in or prevent Republicans, Orphans and independent Democrats from voting in order to carry out his contract, indirectly at least.

County Detectives on Guard.

Evidence had reached the county authorities that wholesale repeating was intended and coercion and intimidation would be practiced, and District Attorney Stewart had instructed the county detectives to be on the lookout. Realizing that the county detectives would try to counteract every crooked move of the city administration, "Buck" Wallace gave orders early, and later in the day betrayed his animus by saying that before night every county detective would be arrested, and that District Attorney Stewart and the chief of the county detectives, Robert G. Robinson, would be taken if Wallace could "get anything on them."

The result of Wallace's desperate policy soon began to show. County Detective Murrin was stationed outside the polling place in the jail lobby, for this was one of the districts in which the administration was intending to do some crooked work. Special Policeman Richard Kelly and Policeman John Curran ordered Murrin to move on, disputing his right to be stationed there. A crowd gathered about Murrin and was pushing him toward the wall, when County Detectives McMillen and Merit came around the corner with W. R. McKee, an alleged illegal voter whom they were taking to jail.

McMillen saw the crowd threatening Murrin, whom Kelly and Curran had seized. McMillen pushed into the crowd and asked Kelly and Curran to desist from holding Murrin. Just then a shot was heard and a bullet flattened itself against the wall above Murrin's head. Curran and Kelly say they did not shoot.

Later Wallace ordered Murrin's arrest, as he was too active in preventing illegal voting, and Kelly and Curran took him to the Central station. The charge was disorderly conduct. Ordinarily a man accused of that offense is released on depositing a forfeit of $30, but Wallace demanded $1,500 bail. A policeman at the polls started to arrest McMillen, but Detective Merit, who had landed his prisoner in jail, came out, protested, and the policeman took his hands off McMillen when the latter showed his badge. Bail was procured for Murrin.

City Detective Is Arrested.

McKee had been arrested at the polls of the Second district of the First ward. His vote was challenged and he swore he lived at a certain number in Second avenue. This, it was ascertained, is a disorderly house, and so a warrant was sworn out against McKee before Alderman Toole. A few roughs started to interfere, but the detectives were firm, and when the roughs found that an attempt to rescue the prisoner would bring trouble upon them, they did not molest the detectives, McMillen and Merit.

City Detective Homer Crooks, for his activity in carrying out the orders of Wallace, was arrested. The charge was that Crooks was in the Larimer avenue district, standing a little distance away from the polls, and that he threatened several men that if they did not vote the Citizens-Democrat ticket he would arrest them and railroad them to the workhouse. Crooks was arrested on a warrant sworn out before Alderman Toole, charging him with a misdemeanor. He was released on $1,000 bail.

There was serious trouble at the polls of the Fourth district of the Seventh ward. County Detective Reed had a warrant charging Police Captain Samuel Callen with assault and battery, but when he tried to arrest Callen the latter, Reed charges, resisted arrest, Reed falling against a hot stove.

Republican Watcher Assaulted.

Reed did not succeed in arresting Callen then, although County Detective Jeremiah Lutz assisted him. James Glenn, Lutz said, tried to eject him, and a warrant charging Glenn with interfering with an officer was sworn out before Alderman John A. Martin. Glenn and Joseph Haley, charged with assault and battery, and A. Brondy were arrested later, and Callen himself was then taken by J. F. Boland, Alderman Martin's constable.

Peter Auslander, a Republican, was hurt in the Third district of the Seventh ward. Auslander had a certificate as a Republican watcher, but the election board refused to honor the certificate. In the melee that followed Auslander was struck on the hand with a handy-billy. He went to the district attorney's office and Assistant District Attorney W. D. Grimes went to the polls with him. Auslander was then allowed to take his place as a watcher.

George H. Boman, a Republican worker in the First district of the Second ward, was arrested on information charging him with disorderly conduct. He was soon released on bail and went back to the polls.

Robinson After Allegheny Thieves.

R. G. Robinson, the chief of the county detectives, went to the polling place of the Second district of the Fourth ward early in the morning to prevent the voting of Allegheny thieves. At the last municipal election Robinson got to the polls after 35 of the North Siders had been voted by the administration heelers, and this time he was determined to arrive in time.

The polls of the First district of the Ninth ward were in Alderman Kirby's offices. It was 7:22 o'clock when County Detectives Kohen and Sonnenfield arrived there and the doors were still closed. Kohen, who is a "strong man," kicked the door open. Voting then began. Suddenly, the electric lights in the office went out. Kohen, suspecting that somebody would try to get hold of the ballot box so that it might be opened and illegal ballots inserted, grabbed the box and held on to it in the darkness, although he felt hands tugging at it, to get it away from him. Five minutes elapsed before the lights were turned on again, and Kohen still had the box.

There was trouble in the First district of the Sixth ward when Thomas Eaton, a registered voter and a Republican, tried to vote. City Detective Riley arrested him, charging him with an attempt to vote illegally and took him to the Central police station.

H. C. Wasson instituted habeas corpus proceedings before Judge McClung, and Eaton was taken into court.

Police Lieutenant Is Arrested.

Lieutenant of Police Charles Grimes, Policeman Lawrence Snyder, John Fox, a Citizens watcher, and Richard Wiseman were arrested on a charge of intimidating a voter in this district. The information was made by H. A. Getty, a watcher for the Lincoln party. It is alleged that during a dispute over a tax receipt presented by a voter, Grimes ordered the voter's arrest, and that the other three accused grabbed the voter and took him out of the polling place. The election board protested against the action of Grimes and the other three men, as the board was about to accept the man's vote when he was arrested. Bail in $500 was given for Wiseman by John Dunn. J. J. Patton, who is in business with Peter Hermes, furnished bail in $500 bail for each of the others.

John Moran, who had been sworn as a deputy constable by Alderman Martin, went to the First district when the polls were open, but was thrown out by Lieut. Grimes and his officers. Moran refused to leave.

Andrew Fulton's Clerk Active.

John Mawhinney, a clerk in the office of Delinquent Tax Collector Andrew Fulton and Thomas Garland, a Citizens watcher in the Eighth district of the Sixth ward, were arrested on a charge of assault and battery preferred by John J. Hohensteatt, a Republican watcher. It is alleged that when Hohensteatt challenged a would-be voter, the men set on him and gave him a severe beating. Bail was furnished in the sum of $500 each by J. J. Patton.

Shortly after Mawhinney and Garland had been released, Murry Verner went to Alderman Martin's office to give bail for them.

George Glover and Thomas Madden were arrested on a charge of illegal voting on an information made by ex-Alderman B. C. Barton. It is alleged that Glover went into the polling place of the First district of the Seventh ward, and giving his residence as 24 Federal street, was allowed to vote after he had been vouched for by Madden. A charge of aiding and abetting the casting of an illegal vote was also placed against Madden. They were released on bail of $1,000 each, supplied by Alderman Louis Alpern.

Arrested a Republican Worker.

Meyer Von Lewn, a Republican worker in the Second district of the Sixth ward, was arrested by Special Policeman Edward Dunn on a charge of disorderly conduct and taken to the Center avenue station house, where he was held for several hours, the police long refusing to permit him to be released on bail.

At 4 o'clock John O'Neil was arrested by Police Sergeant Thomas Sterck at the polling place of the First district of the Third ward. He was charged with illegal voting and was vouched for as living at 545 Grant street. His vote was challenged on the ground that he lived at First avenue and Ferry street, First ward. Sergeant Sterck told O'Neil he was not qualified to vote in the district, and he finally sent him to Central station. Harry Moore, director of the department of public safety, issued an order not to let them out on bail.

Charles Mende of 545 Grant street was arrested last night by Officer Sterck on a warrant issued by Alderman Groetzinger, charging Mende with false swearing and procuring a fraudulent vote. It is alleged that Mende vouched for John O'Neil.

Many Informations Made.

Informations were made by George H. Rohman, the Republican watcher at the First district of the Seventh ward, charging George Jeffe, a man named —— Fitzpatrick and another named —— Barrett, alias —— Calvert, before Alderman John Martin. Barrett voted as a resident of 69 Chatham street, and, it is charged, an hour later, dressed differently, voted under the name of Calvert as being a resident of 71 Chatham street. Jeffe and Fitzpatrick are alleged to have vouched for him and are charged with aiding and abetting in the casting of an illegal ballot. Barrett, or Calvert, is charged with illegal voting.

John Snyder of 3132 Windom street was arrested yesterday afternoon at the polling place of the First district, Twenty-fourth ward, by Officer J. Hilty. He was charged with disorderly conduct.

CITIZENS ARE DEJECTED IN SEVENTEENTH WARD

Admit They Have Received the Worst Beating Since the Organization of the Party.

The absence of red fire and gunpowder was conspicuous in the outer Penn avenue district last night, and it was generally remarked that "such a quiet election had not been seen for years." Small crowds gathered early in the evening in front of the polling places in the Ninth, Fifteenth and Seventeenth wards, but there was little noise and no disturbance beyond the arrest of a few drunks.

In the Seventeenth the crowds were jubilant. The big Republican majority there started them out early. Several precincts were won only by the closest watching. In the First of the Seventeenth 13 payroll men were listed among the Citizens leaders, some of whom had lately been promoted to get them in line for aids. The result of their efforts was told tersely by an organization fireman at 9 o'clock.

"We are beaten and licked the worst we have been since the Citizens party was organized," he said.

The First precinct of the Seventeenth had double cause to rejoice. Into this precinct there came some three weeks ago a man named Hunt from Buffalo. Hunt boldly proclaimed that he had come back to "show Max Leslie that he could not carry the First precinct." This precinct rolled up a majority of about 60 for the Republican ticket, and the boastful Hunt was nowhere to be seen last night.

In the Fifth of the Seventeenth there were three fights, none of them serious. One arrest was made in the Fourth precinct. Twenty-seven firemen and policemen fought all day for the Citizens aggregation in the Seventh district. Charges of illegal voting were freely made by the Republican leaders in this precinct and several cases are to be taken into court. Challenge papers were exhausted before 3 o'clock, for the number of repeaters and non-residents the Citizens brought in quickly used up the supply. Nine negroes unknown to the neighborhood were voted at $5 each by the machine gang.

A riot nearly resulted in Butler street at 8 o'clock, when Officer Daniel McCarty struck a young man named Thomas Carney in a way that did not suit his companions. A big crowd followed the prisoner to the police station in Forty-third street and his forfeit was paid by zealous friends, who vowed vengeance on the officious policeman, who had been displeased by the taunts of the crowd over the Citizens defeat.

County Recorder Is Busy.

County Recorder J. Denny O'Neil, candidate for re-election, was a very busy man around McKeesport polling places yesterday. He made information against James McCord, colored, charging him with previously voting under the name of Henry Jones. He also made information against Charles Parker, charging him with the theft of the First ward registry books. McCord had previously had a fight with Michael Boldin, a Citizens watcher, and the latter was arrested. O'Neil put up a $25 forfeit for his release.

COURT REFUSES BENCH WARRANT

Citizens' Effort to Close Polls at Aspinwall Fails Before Judge McClung.

WASSON GETS HABEAS CORPUS

The petition of O. E. Carr to bring the election board of Aspinwall into court on a bench warrant because it had refused his vote and that of 35 or 40 others, was refused by Judge McClung yesterday afternoon. The petition was presented by Assistant City Solicitor L. S. Levin, and in it Carr averred that all were qualified voters and were entitled to cast their ballots.

Attorney James Francis Burke had an answer ready, and this raising an issue, the court did not see how he could arbitrarily bring in the board or order it to accept the man's vote without a hearing, and asked for Levin's authority for doing this, thus disqualifying every other legitimate voter in the borough by closing the polls. It was too late in the afternoon to bring in the board, and the court made it plain that even if Carr was entitled to vote, he had a remedy if the board refused to permit him to cast it, but if the board was legally right, the court stated he did not want to make a legal cause for throwing out the entire vote of the precinct by closing the polls at that hour, too late to have them opened again.

Too Late in the Day.

The petition was presented at 4:10 p. m. by Levin, and with him was Attorney Frank Agnew. They wanted to go into a hearing, Levin claiming the board had refused to allow the men to vote because they had not paid their taxes themselves, their receipts having been obtained on orders, which they claimed was legal.

Attorney Burke asked that the petition be dismissed because the qualifications of the petitioner and others to vote were not set forth properly, and that further hardship would be worked on other voters who had not yet voted, because the granting of the bench warrant would close the polls.

Levin wanted to amend his petition to bring in only the judge of elections, but the court said that would not help matters. Judge McClung said if the petitioner had a right to vote he could contest the election and throw out the vote if he proved the board was arbitrary. The court agreed with Mr. Burke's contention.

"There may be a cause for throwing out these votes," the court said, "but I'm not going to make a cause by granting your petition."

Advised Board to Be Careful.

During the argument the court said the election board might have made a mistake in their judgment not to admit the votes, and said it had better consider its course, for it might be defeating its own ends.

The polls of the Tenth district of the Twenty-first ward were closed before a vote was cast owing to there being two judges of election. R. A. Crawford, a Republican, who had been judge for three years, and D. K. Mull, appointed Monday by the court, were there. Both were sworn, and then a dispute arose which ended in court, where it was explained that a clerical error made the name of Crawford, Campbell, and when no R. A. Campbell was found in the district, Mull was appointed on a petition. The court said Mull was entitled to the place, but it had no jurisdiction in the case. A policeman named Boyd was said to have been instrumental in closing the polls, and the court said the proper way to get at him was to make an information.

Thomas Tobin, judge of elections of the Third district, Eleventh ward, was taken before Judge Evans on a bench warrant issued at the instance of Ellis Sproul, the Republican overseer, who averred William Roberts, colored, had been refused permission to qualify as a voter after being challenged.

Told to Get Out.

It was brought out before the court that Roberts had been asked for his tax receipt, and Roberts said that when he told the board he had lost it, Tobin told him to get out.

David Tobin, assistant building inspector, a brother of the judge of elections, was called in his brother's behalf, and the court said it was plain that these men were too anxious to seize upon pretexts. David Tobin was told to be a little more moderate in expressing his views of the law about the polls, and that they had all better comply with the law.

Judge Evans released Tobin, the judge of elections, saying it was not the duty of a judge to interfere, except when the inspectors could not agree. It is not his business to say who shall vote or who not until the inspectors fail to reach a decision, when the judge is to determine the matter. Roberts went back to the polls to vote.

Benjamin Benjamin was released in $500 bail by Judge McClung, Alderman McMasters going on his bond. Benjamin was arrested in the First district of the Second ward by County Detective Harry Merit on the charge of abetting fraudulent voting. Alderman Toole, before whom the information was made, fixed the bail, but refused to accept bond unless ordered to do so by the court.

Warrant Out for Gainor.

Benjamin, it is said, vouched for G. W. Gainor, who, it is alleged, lived at the Hotel Wilson for but two weeks. A warrant is out for Gainor also.

Judge McClung granted a writ of habeas corpus for the release of Thomas Eaton from Central station. He had been arrested in the afternoon by Detective William Riley at the polling place of the Fifth district of the Sixth ward on a charge of illegal voting. He gave his residence as 17 Shingiss street, but it is alleged he lives in Denny alley in the Fifth ward. Attorney H. G. Wasson went to the station with a bail bond for his release, but Assistant Superintendent of Police E. J. Kennelly, who was in charge, refused to accept it as the property was not specified as required. Wasson then went into court and secured the writ and at the same time had the bond rectified and returned to Central station.

The writ was read to Captain of Police Thomas McCabe, who knew nothing of the matter, while it was directed to Director Moore, Supt. Wallace and "Captain" Kennelly. The latter, who is assistant superintendent, however, did not stand on the technicality, as the corrected bond was accepted for Eaton's release. It was in the sum of $500 and was signed by Max G. Leslie.

FUSIONISTS MAY TEST THIRTY-YEAR OLD LAW

Claim Courts Have No Constitutional Right to Add Names to the Registry List.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

BEAVER, PA., Nov. 7.—The excitement over the judicial contest between J. Rankin Martin, Republican, and R. S. Holt, Fusionist, and the five months' active campaign, brought out a big vote. Judge J. Sharp Wilson sat on the bench all day to be ready to act in case of trouble at the polls.

He was there for several hours before anything turned up. Then he was asked to issue a mandamus on the election board of the Second ward, Monaca, to compel it to allow men whose names had been added to the registry by order of court, to vote. The mandamus was issued at 11:30. Then an amicable settlement was attempted by J. Frank Reed, the fusion leader, who sent a note to the board to let the men vote. It was the fusion members of the board who were causing trouble, but they refused to take orders from Reed, so the court directed Sheriff Howard Bliss to serve the mandamus. As soon as it was served the board promised to be good, rather than be taken to court to be instructed to let the men vote, thus closing the polls for an hour or more.

Later two similar mandamuses were issued in the boards of the Monaca First ward and Rochester Second ward. The boards acted as the first one had done. The question of the right of the court to add names to the registry is being questioned by the fusion leaders and in case the result is close may be grounds used to contest the election. They say the act of assembly authorizing the court to act is unconstitutional.

For the 30 years since the act was passed it has never been questioned in this county or in the state, and it has been customary here every year to have the neglected names put on before the election.

MITCHELL AND GUN PROVE THE UNDOING OF FALOON

George W. Faloon of Homestead was committed to jail last night on a charge of entering a building with intent to commit a felony, made by H. K. Mitchell. When Mitchell was about to enter his home Monday night he heard his dog barking. After he had gone up stairs Mitchell heard a noise in the cellar. He got a gun and, looking out of a window, saw Faloon looking out of the cellar. Mitchell yelled at Faloon to take his head in or he would shoot it off. Faloon withdrew his head and Mitchell fired two shots in the air, attracting the police.

Auto Breaks Woman's Leg.

As three women were attempting to board a car in Highland avenue last night an automobile, driven by A. E. Arthurs of Wellesley avenue, struck Miss Annie Dugan of Allegheny and knocked her down. She was thrown against the curb, sustaining a cut on the head and a broken leg. She was taken to the East End hospital.

Gas Explosion Wrecks Store.

The grocery store of William H. Young, Thirteenth avenue, Homestead, was wrecked yesterday morning by an explosion of gas. Through a defective coupling the gas accumulated between the floor and ceiling. The rooms were torn apart and Mr. Young was slightly burned. The loss is about $600.

HAMILTON'S

The Coming
of an

into your home would mean far more than mere amusement to your family and friends.

Just suppose that you could have Harold Bauer or Emil Paur or Paderewski or some other of the greatest musicians come to your piano every night in the year, or just as often as you wished. Wouldn't their music be a source not only of pleasure, but of education?

Wouldn't you like to throw around your boys and girls continually the influence of the best in music and in painting and in literature?

Well, as far as music—the most divine of the arts—is concerned—the problem is solved for you.

If you have an

at your piano you can summon at your will the great musical thoughts, the beautiful dream harmonies, the great tone pictures of all the masters of all the world. And the effort required involves little more than a wish.

The Angelus surpasses every other known piano player either human or mechanical. Its repertoire is unlimited. It never tires, is never out of sorts, always ready to answer to your will, to meet with full sympathy your every mood.

The Angelus has the

and the melody devices. No other piano player possesses them. And therefore no other piano player can give the same musical results. The prices are $275 to $350, depending on the style of case.

Booklets which tell about the Angelus in detail are free if you ask for them.

CHILD'S AWFUL SKIN HUMOR

Screamed with Pain—Suffering Nearly Broke Parent's Heart—Twelve Years of Misery—Doctor Called Case Incurable—Helped from First, and

SPEEDILY CURED BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I wish to inform you that your wonderful Cuticura has put a stop to twelve years of misery I passed with my son. As an infant I noticed on his body a red spot and treated same with different remedies for about five years, but when the spot began to get larger I put him under the care of doctors. Under their treatment the disease spread to four different parts of his body. The longer the doctors treated him the worse it grew. During the day it would get rough and form like scales. At night it would be cracked, inflamed, and badly swollen, with terrible burning and itching. When I think of his suffering, it nearly breaks my heart. His screams could be heard down stairs. The suffering of my son made me full of misery. I had no ambition to work, to eat, nor could I sleep.

"One doctor told me that my son's eczema was incurable and gave it up for a bad job. One evening I saw an article in the paper about the wonderful Cuticura and decided to give it a trial.

"I tell you that Cuticura Ointment is worth its weight in gold; and when I had used the first box of Ointment there was a great improvement, and by the time I had used the second set of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent my child was cured. He is now twelve years old, and his skin is as fine and smooth as silk. (signed) Michael Steinman, 7 Sumner Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., April 16, 1905."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for every Humor, from Pimples to Scrofula, from Infancy to Age, consisting of Cuticura Soap, 25c., Ointment, 50c., Resolvent, 50c. (in form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per vial of 60), may be had of all druggists. A single set often cures. Potter Drug & Chem. CROUPLENE

The physicians and druggists marvel when told of the curative properties of N. C. Crouplene—certainly it is the 20th century wonder.

Let us illustrate: Child awakens with a severe attack of croup. A dose of N. C. Crouplene is given, and the little one is immediately relieved, quicker than it takes to write it. Then it is so harmless. A pure vegetable compound, not only cures and prevents croup, but strengthens and imparts good health to your children.

There are no healthier children on earth than those who take Crouplene.

Mothers, try one small bottle. Every mother who has given us a testimonial always says, "We would not be one night without it."

Thousands of bottles sold. We have never heard of its having once failed.

Croup is a dangerous disease. If not quickly attended to, leads to serious results.

Don't put it off—get it now. You want it handy when you need it.

N. C. Crouplene is prepared by Registered Pharmacists, who, after a thorough examination by the State Pharmaceutical Examining Board, were granted a certificate giving them the right to practice their profession.

Their ability should give you confidence in this preparation.

See that our firm name appears on every package as the manufacturers. It means you are getting the best there is.

If your druggist doesn't have it, send direct to us for it, but always first

SPLENDID WORK BY MOZART CLUB

Mendelsshon's "Elijah" Is Magnificently Rendered in Season's Initial Concert.

CHORUS IS FINELY BALANCED

The first concert of the Mozart club's 25th season was given in Carnegie music hall last evening before an audience which comfortably filled the hall. The oratorio chosen for the occasion was Mendelssohn's "Elijah," and the performance was the ninth which the club has given of this favorite work. The chorus was never in better form. Rehearsals have been in progress for several months, as this program was originally intended for the last concert of the season, and the added time spent in preparation was readily apparent in the performance.

Barring a somewhat lower standard on tone and precision in the tenor section, in spite of the valiant efforts of some of the more experienced tenors, the chorus is excellently balanced this year, and sings with a vim and precision seldom attained by a choral body of 200 voices. At times the shading, the attacks and releases, leave something to be desired, but the faults are more these of over-enthusiasm than lack of interest or preparation. The Baal choruses and the final chorus in the first part, "Thanks be to God," were excellent examples of vigorous chorus singing, and the short chorus "He that Shall Endure" was the most refined in detail.

Mr. McCollum has reason to be pleased with the success of the society this season, as evidenced by the hearty applause which almost invariably followed the choruses. The soloists were among the most satisfactory presented by the club in recent years. Particular interest was felt in the appearance of the soprano, Amanda Vierheller, on account of long absence from her native city, and the reports of the success which she had in various European cities. Last night's results justified the expectations, for Miss Vierheller received enthusiastic applause and appreciation throughout the evening, and especially after the most important solo for soprano, "Hear Ye, Israel." Miss Miller, the contralto, had previously set a high standard in oratorio singing, but it is safe to say that her work last evening showed a decided advance, both in voice and interpretation. The solo tenor was Alfred D. Shaw of Chicago, a thoroughly reliable singer, with an excellent voice, but lacking somewhat the temperament which was apparent in the other soloists. Gwilym Miles, baritone, has sung "Elijah" with the Mozart club several times, and always enthuses the audience by his vivid performance. This year his interpretation is materially improved in dignity and impressiveness, and is vocally superior to his previous efforts.

The small but difficult part of the Youth was entrusted to Mrs. Belle Flagg, and the high first soprano part in the Sanctus to Gertrude Sykes, both of whom acquitted themselves with credit. John Prichard presided at the organ, and aided materially in the volume of some of the ensemble effects.

The Pittsburgh Orchestra played the accompaniments excellently, and some of the solo parts, such as Mr. Bramsen's 'cello obligato in the "It Is Enough," and occasional melodies for the wind instruments, were beautifully done.

The audience was much more enthusiastic than it is wont to be at Mozart club concerts, and the opening performance augurs well for the balance of the season. The next program is the annual Christmas performance of the "Messiah."

The Death Roll.

Jacob Keller.

Jacob Keller, a retired business man of this city, died last night at 10:15 o'clock at his residence, 538 Park avenue. Mr. Keller was born July 5, 1825, in Alsace-Loraine, and came to this country at the age of 12. For a short time he lived in Paterson, N. J., coming to Allegheny in the fall of 1838. HAVANA, Nov. 7.—(Special Cable.)—Orestes Ferrara, secretary of former Governor Gomez, has arrived from New York on the Seguranca. Detectives met him on board the ship. The judge said he would have to furnish double bail.

When this was done Ferrara was told that he would be kept under supervision. He left the court and went to the Liberal club, where he managed to elude his guard and now is in the house of a friend. It is said in moderate circles that Ferrara has announced his intention of avenging the death of Villuendas, who was his dearest friend.

OPEN DEBAUCHERY IN SECOND WARD

Court Will Be Asked to Throw Out the Whole First Election District.

VOTES BOUGHT ON THE CURB

Frequent collisions between the police and county detectives occurred yesterday and County Chairman Ford, City Chairman Leslie and a corps of attorneys were kept busy at the county headquarters in Grant street responding to calls for assistance to get a county detective or some worker or voter out of the lockup, who had been placed there by the armed members of Supt. "Buck" Wallace's police force, who, instead of preserving order, "roughed" it at the polls whenever an opportunity afforded.

County Detective R. L. McMillen was arrested twice. The second time he was taken into custody was in the Second ward at the First district polling place, Smithfield street and Second avenue. A Citizen worker named Gray hit a Republican watcher in the face and Detective McMillen asked Policemen Edward Frawley and James Baker to arrest Gray.

"We will take you," said Frawley, and they called a patrol wagon and hustled McMillen to the Central police station, where he was confined for two hours. Attorney John S. Weller, from the Republican headquarters, finally got McMillen out on bail, but in the meantime the Citizens had run in many illegal votes.

Councilman Distributes Money.

Probably never in the history of local politics was bribery and fraudulent voting conducted more openly than at this district polling place, which was located in an engine and hook and ladder house. Select Councilman E. J. Edwards was seen distributing money on the sidewalk to a worker. A couple of greenbacks fluttered to the ground. No effort at secrecy was made.

"This is the place for money today," said Policeman Frawley to three reporters. "I have seen many bums here today who had a roll of bills as big as your fist, who were never known to have a cent of money."

City Chairman Max G. Leslie was told of the manner in which the Citizens were rushing in fraudulent votes in the Second ward, and he went down to the First district polling place to see for himself. He stood in the door of the polling place and saw the Citizens party workers, aided by the two policemen, drag in a man who, although half drunk, had sense enough to see that he was getting himself into trouble.

"I don't want to vote," he said.

"Oh, yes, you do," said the Citizens, as they dragged him forward and made him deposit his ballot. This man gave his address as Second avenue.

Will Have Vote Thrown Out.

"We can't stop it," said Chairman Leslie. "There is only one thing to do, and that is to go into court tomorrow and have the whole vote from this district thrown out, which we will do."

One Citizens party man stood outside of the polls with the padded registry list in his hand.

"Tell him what his name is to vote," said another worker to the man with the registry list, as he brought forward some individual.

The prospective voter was told what name he was to use in voting, the address where he was supposed to reside and, escorted by two or three workers, he was shoved into the polling place. The Citizens watchers motioned to the policemen standing on the opposite side of the street to come over and clear out the polling place of persons who might not be wanted there as witnesses.

Chairman Leslie said he had seen enough in the few minutes he was there to secure evidence that would throw out in court the entire vote of the district.

Reports of disturbances in many wards came to the county headquarters. During the afternoon disorder and arrests were reported from the Seventh and Eighth wards, in the Hill district. Late in the afternoon word was received by Chairman Leslie over the telephone from Joseph C. Wasson in the Twelfth district of the Twentieth ward, that attempts were being made by the Citizens to vote repeaters. From the Twelfth district of the Nineteenth ward, at the polling place in Breedshills street, came word that the policemen were using their clubs and driving voters from the polls.

The American, a Republican newspaper, announces the defeat of the constitutional suffrage amendment by a majority of 15,000.

DEATH WINS RACE WITH A CANDIDATE

ROXBURY, MASS., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—With his name on the ballot as a candidate for the senate in the First Norfolk district, on the Socialist ticket, and with friends and constituents voting for him, William Packard of Quincy did not live to see the result of his fight. He was attacked suddenly late last evening with heart failure, from which he died early this morning.

UNION LABOR CANDIDATE WINS IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—The indications are that Eugene Schmitz, the Union Labor candidate, has been reelected mayor of this city by 15,000 majority. With six precincts to hear from the count stands: Schmitz, 42,205; Partridge, 28,108.

FIRST REPUBLICAN MAYOR IN FIFTEEN YEARS

Independents Win.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 7.—In the Essex senatorial district, Everett Colby, Independent Republican, who wrested the Republican nomination for state senator from the regular Republican organization, wins by not less than 15,000 in the county, and the ticket goes through with him.

Gov. Utter Probably Re-Elected.

Small Democratic Majority.

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 7.—The indications are that the Democrats have carried the state, but by a very much smaller majority than usual—about 20,000.

NO ENTHUSIASM BY THE CROWDS

Throngs Hear Returns in Almost Absolute Silence—Gazette Gives First News.

EXTRA BY THE TRUTHLESS

Never in the history of Pittsburgh elections were the return-seeking crowds that gathered in front of newspaper offices less enthusiastic than they were last night. Even before rain fell the crowd was damp. Several youths carried non-partisan cow bells that rang forth regardless of the political bearing of the bulletins that were displayed, but silence prevailed generally. Even the exhibition of portraits of dead presidents and the American flag on a canvass by a fusion newspaper while awaiting news encouraging to its politics did not create a cheer.

By far the largest crowd on the downtown streets gathered in front of the bulletin boards of The Gazette, which were stretched for half a square down Oliver avenue, and offered room for the vast throng, free from the molestation of street cars and traffic. With special wires of private bureaus in Philadelphia, New York and Washington, and the Associated Press and Western Union service, an advantage was obtained in receiving early news, which the crowd did not fail to appreciate. Another feature of The Gazette bulletin service was its utter impartiality, which was clearly shown by its announcement before 8 o'clock that Philadelphia had been lost to the Republicans, as well as the state of Ohio.

This great advantage of The Gazette news service over that of competitors became so clearly evident during the night that contrasts that were offered struck a humorous chord in the crowds gathered about The Gazette bulletin boards when an "extra" appeared upon the streets issued by the only fearful, truthless and dependent paper in Pennsylvania carrying a page advertisement on the back of a four-page paper announcing that it was the only truthful paper in Pennsylvania.

This "extra" bore the flaring headline that the "State and County Were in Doubt;" "McClellan Carries New York by Not More Than 50,000;" "Pattison Carries Cleveland;" "Close Contest in Ohio."

A half hour previously The Gazette bulletin boards had told the crowds that George B. Cox, the Republican leader in Ohio, had conceded the state to the Democrats by 60,000, and that even 100,000 majority had been conceded the Democrats in the "Close Contest in Ohio."

An hour previously The Gazette had told the public that the county of Allegheny was far from doubtful and that the majority for the Republican ticket would approximate 8,000. Fully an hour before the "only truthful paper in Pennsylvania" announced that "McClellan Carries New York by Not More Than 50,000," the bulletins of The Gazette informed the public that the mayoralty contest in New York was so close that the New York Sun declared Hearst elected and that if McClellan was elected it would be by the smallest majority ever alloted a New York mayor. That "Pattison Carries Cleveland" was not denied.

PRESIDENT HEARS RETURNS.

Mr. Roosevelt Receives Dispatches on the Result of the Election in the Various States.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—President Roosevelt spent the greater part of the evening in the executive offices, receiving the election returns. With him were Mrs. Roosevelt, Secretary Root and Assistant Secretary Bacon of the state department. The President received dispatches from party leaders in various states, giving their estimates of the results based on returns received by them.

Particular interest was manifested by the President and his associates in the reports from New York city, Massachusetts, Ohio and Maryland. None of the dispatches received at the White House were made public, and it was announced that the President would not have any statement to make tonight regarding the results in the several states.

Elect Republican Congressman.

ROCK ISLAND, ILL., Nov. 7.—Returns from the Fourteenth district tonight indicate that James McKinney (Rep.), has defeated J. Howard Pattee (Dem.), for congress, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of B. F. Marsh, by 4,500 plurality.

Same Old Bourbon State.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Nov. 7.—The election of the entire Democratic city and county ticket and 10 Democratic members of the legislature is generally conceded by pluralities ranging from 3,500 to 7,000.

Republican Victory in Omaha.

OMAHA, NEB., Nov. 7.—Sufficient returns are in to indicate the election of the entire Republican ticket. Omaha used voting machines for the first time today.

Claim Anti-Mormon Mayor.

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 7.—The American party managers claim the election of Ezra Thompson, anti-Mormon candidate for mayor.

THEORIES ABOUT FOOD.

Also a Few Facts on the Same Subject.

We hear much nowadays about health foods and hygienic living, about vegetarianism, and many other fads along the same line.

Restaurants may be found in the larger cities where no meat, pastry or coffee is served and the food crank is in his glory, and arguments and theories galore advanced to prove that meat was never intended for human stomachs, and almost make us believe that our sturdy ancestors, who lived four-score years in robust health on roast beef, pork and mutton, must have been grossly ignorant of the laws of health.

Our forefathers had other things to do than formulate theories about the food they ate. A warm welcome was extended to any kind, from bacon to acorns.

A healthy appetite and common sense are excellent guides to follow in matters of diet, and a mixed diet of grains, fruits and meats is undoubtedly the best.

As compared with grains and vegetables, meat furnishes the most nutriment in a highly concentrated form and is digested and assimilated more quickly than vegetables or grains.

Dr. Julius Remmsch, on this subject, says: "Nervous persons, people run down in health and of low vitality, should eat meat and plenty of it. If the digestion is too feeble at first it may be easily corrected by the regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal. Two of these excellent tablets taken after dinner will digest several thousand grains of meat, eggs or other animal food in three hours, and no matter how weak the stomach may be, no trouble will be experienced if a regular practice is made of using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they supply the pepsin and diastase necessary to perfect digestion, and every form of indigestion will be overcome by their use.

That large class of people who come under the head of nervous dyspeptics should eat plenty of meat and insure its proper digestion by the daily use of a safe, harmless digestive medicine like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, composed of the natural digestive principles, pepsin, diastase, fruit acids and salts, which actually perform the work of digestion. Cheap cathartic medicines, masquerading under the name of dyspepsia cures, are useless for indigestion, as they have absolutely no effect upon the actual digestion of food.

Dyspepsia in all its many forms is simply a failure of the stomach to digest food, and the sensible way to solve the riddle and cure the dyspepsia is to make daily use at meal time of a preparation like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which is indorsed by the medical profession and known to contain active digestive principles.

GAZETTE ADS BRING BUSINESS

RETURNS YET FAR FROM COMPLETE

Meager Bulletins Indicate Immense Vote Is Polled in the State.

VOTERS ARE ALL ENTHUSIASTIC

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Incomplete returns from various parts of the state indicate the election of Berry (Dem.), for state treasurer, by a large majority. Republican strongholds are showing unexpected gains for Berry. Lancaster county, normally Republican by 10,000, is in doubt.

Other Republican counties show the same enormous Republican losses. Berry, nominated as a Democrat, was indorsed by the Independent Republicans and the Prohibitionists. In this city, the Lincoln party, formed by the independents, gave Berry a tremendous vote. The state treasury has been under Republican control since 1880. Roosevelt's plurality last year was 504,000.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 7.—(Special.)—Incomplete returns from two-thirds of the districts indicate a majority of 1,000 for Plummer over Berry in Dauphin county. The entire Republican county ticket is elected. The $400,000 improvement loan in Harrisburg appears to be beaten.

Following are the county officers elected, all being Republicans except the two minority officials necessarily going to the Democrats:

Sheriff, Samuel E. Dunkle; county commissioners, John S. Longenecker, D. Frank Lebo and W. W. Wallower (Dem.); recorder, Henry M. Stine; treasurer, John L. Grove; register, John J. Hargest; mine inspector, Charles J. Price; director of the poor, John Early; auditors, George E. Reigle, Elmer W. Dockey and L. W. Horner (Dem.).

The vote was light. There was little cutting except for state treasurer, Plummer running behind his ticket.

CENTER (estimated)—Gives Berry 400 plurality. Same county gave Mathues 10 plurality, a Democratic gain of 410.

MIFFLIN (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 200. The same county gave Mathues a plurality of 313, a Democratic gain of 513.

COLUMBIA (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 1,800. The same county gave Hill a plurality of 906, a Democratic gain of 894.

VENANGO (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 500. The same county gave Mathues a plurality of 2,331, a Democratic gain of 2,831. The vote for judge of common pleas court will be very close.

CLEARFIELD—About 75 per cent of the vote was polled in the county today. A large majority of the stay-at-homes are Republicans. Returns received from various parts of the county indicate a majority for Berry of not less than 700, and may reach 1,200 or more. The vote on county treasurer is uncertain. Allen (Dem.) and Stewart (Rep.) are both running ahead of their tickets in their home districts. The county commissioners' vote is greatly mixed. Hamilton, (Rep.) is running far ahead of the other three, Shaw, Wilhelm and Rowles. Edwards, Republican candidate for county auditor, is running behind his ticket. Castle will get a large vote.

LYCOMING (estimated)—Berry, 4,000 plurality.

TIOGA (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 1,500. Same county gave Mathues 1,762, a Democratic gain of 3,262.

CLINTON—Gives Berry plurality of 500. Same county gave Mathues 128, a Democratic gain of 628.

MONTOUR (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 800. Same county gave Hill a plurality of 36, a Democratic gain of 494. Frank G. Blee was elected associate judge.

WARREN (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 800. Same county gave Mathues 1,359, a Democratic gain of 2,159. Mooney (D.) will probably be elected judge by a small plurality. The balance of the Republican ticket is elected by a small majority.

LYCOMING (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 4,000. Same county gave Hill 310, a Democratic gain of 3,690.

BEAVER (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 300. Same county gave Mathues 2,424, a Democratic gain of 2,724. Holt, candidate of fusion ticket for judge of common pleas, will have a majority of 1,000 over Martin, Republican.

Pike (estimated) gives Berry a plurality of 800. Same county gave Hill a plurality of 473, a Democratic gain of 327.

Snyder (estimated) gives Plummer a plurality of 300. Same county gave Mathues a plurality of 800. The entire Republican ticket is elected.

Cameron (estimated) gives Plummer a plurality of 100. Same county gave Mathues 247, a Democratic gain of 147.

Forest (estimated) gives Plummer a plurality of 200. Same county gave Mathues a plurality of 266, a Democratic gain of 66.

Monroe (estimated) gives Berry a plurality of 1,500. Same gave Hill a plurality of 1,297, a Democratic gain of 203. George H. Metgar is elected associate judge, and the entire Democratic county ticket is successful.

NORTHUMBERLAND (estimated)—Gives Berry plurality of 2,500. Same county gave Mathues 402, a Democratic gain of 3,902.

LAWRENCE (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 2,000. Same county gave Mathues 2,655, a Democratic gain of 4,655.

LANCASTER—Returns from one-half of the 119 districts in the county show Republican loss of 2,106. Plummer will probably carry the county by less than 5,000 plurality.

CAMBRIA (estimated)—Plummer, state treasurer, 1,500 plurality.

INDIANA (corrected)—Gives Plummer a majority of about 1,600, a Democratic gain of 823.

BEDFORD (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 600. Same county gave Mathues a plurality of 895, a Democratic gain of 1,495.

WESTMORELAND (estimated)—Gives Plummer a plurality of 2,500. Same county gave Mathues a plurality of 2,757, a Democratic gain of 257.

SUSQUEHANNA (estimated) — Gives Plummer a plurality of 400. Same county gave Mathues a plurality of 1,317, a Democratic gain of 917.

WAYNESBURG (estimated) — Berry and entire Democratic ticket carried Greene county by pluralities ranging from 200 to 600. The contest was an exciting one and the returns will be late. At the polls in Washington township Lindsey Meek, ex-sheriff and a prominent contractor, was struck on the head with a stone by a man named Hughes and severely injured. He was rendered unconscious, and it was feared his skull was fractured. Meek was brought to his home here.

BLAIR (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 1,400. Same county gave Mathues a plurality of 4,300, a Democratic gain of 5,700.

LACKAWANA (estimated) — Gives Berry a plurality of 1,000. Same county gave Mathues 4,632, a Democratic gain of 5,632.

YORK (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 1,000. Same county gave Hill 299, a Democratic gain of 701. Cochran (Rep.), for judge, probably carries the county by 500. The Republican leaders claim the election of the entire county ticket.

BUCKS (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 1,000. Same county gave Mathues a plurality of 1,931, a Democratic gain of 21.

FRANKLIN (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 500. Same county gave Mathues a plurality of 981, a Democratic gain of 1,481. Gillan (Dem.), is elected over Rowan (Rep.), by about 500 plurality. The latter was appointed judge by Gov. Pennypacker after the elevation of Stewart to the supreme court bench.

MERCER (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 1,500. The same county gave Mathues a plurality of 1,635, a Democratic gain of 3,135.

LEHIGH (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 2,000. Same county gave Hill 357, a Democratic gain of 1,643. The entire Democratic county ticket was elected.

NORTHAMPTON (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 3,500. Same county gave Hill 1,427, a Democratic gain of 2,073.

POTTER (estimated)—Gives Plummer a plurality of 200. The same county gave Mathues a plurality of 609, a Democratic gain of 503.

SULLIVAN (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 300. The same county gave Hill a plurality of 77, a Democratic gain of 23.

SCHUYLKILL (estimated)—Gives Berry a plurality of 4,500. The county gave Mathues a plurality of 724, a Democratic gain of 5,228. P. M. Dunn (Dem.), candidate for judge of the orphans court, is probably re-elected.

ERIE—Heavy rain fell all day, making the vote unusually light. Less than 100 votes were polled in each of the first six districts reported. Berry has 20 majority in the six. Prohibitionists carried Union City.

BERKS (estimated)—Gives Berry 7,500 plurality. Same county gave Hill plurality of 4,222, a Democratic gain of 3,278.

LUZERNE (estimated)—Gives Berry 6,000 plurality, a Democratic gain of 8,324.

MONTGOMERY (estimated) — Gives Berry 3,000 plurality. The same county gave Mathues a plurality of 4,231, a Democratic gain of 7,231. The Republicans will elect the entire county ticket with the exception of recorder of deeds.

Armstrong (estimated) gives Plummer a plurality of 900. Same county gave Mathues 1,698, Democratic gain of 798. The entire Republican county ticket is elected.

Fulton (estimated) gives Berry a plurality of 350. Same county gave Hill 178, a Democratic gain of 172. Humbert, Democrat, was elected associate judge by about 200 plurality.

THE NORTH SIDE BREAKS

even the Republican leaders expected more than an even break there.

Payroll Knifed Citizens Ticket.

One thing was apparent last night, and that was the payroll knifed the Citizens ticket terribly. This was expected by the Republicans, as the feelings of the city employes who had been assessed 4 per cent of their wages had been expressed freely. Nothing like the assault the payroll made on the administration was looked for by Mayor Wyman and his leaders. The depth of the resentment felt by the city employes was manifested by their work and votes for the Republican ticket.

Reports from the Thirteenth ward were to the effect that more than 200 city employes were hustling about the polling places during the day.

At both Republican and Citizens headquarters crowds gathered early last evening to hear the returns. Judge Elliott Rodgers and his assistants were kept busy at the telephone all night taking figures sent in from various parts of the city. The first half hour showed the trend of the victory and cheers from hundreds of throats could be heard clear over to the Wyman headquarters in Federal street. Every additional report only added to the enthusiasm and glee of the Republicans.

Sadness at Citizens Headquarters.

A very different scene was witnessed at the Wyman headquarters. From the first the reports from districts giving Citizens majorities were read, and in this manner some hope was bolstered up. But when the truth was told from every ward the crowd that listened to Chairman Jackson and City Solicitor Porter started to dwindle away. Everything indicated a Republican victory and defeat for the Wyman forces. No spread-eagle oratory from the platform could hold the crowds and groups left the hall and walked over to Republican headquarters, where the surroundings were more cheerful.

Shortly after 10 o'clock Mr. Porter announced from the platform that there was some doubt as to whose victory it would be in Allegheny. This was said in such a tone and was so different from the speeches that were bawled out early in the evening that every one in the big building foresaw the result and conceded a Republican victory. Mayor Wyman, City Treasurer Robinson and all the other city officials were in the hall, but before 11 o'clock they realized that defeat was their portion, and went home.

Republicans Were Enthusiastic.

Over at Republican headquarters the crowds swelled as the defection increased in the Citizens camp. At midnight there were still several hundred Republicans cheering and singing campaign songs. Before this the Citizens headquarters was locked up and everyone was gone.

The defeat of the Citizens has a deep significance in considering the mayoralty fight in February. Had Mayor Wyman won another battle, his candidate in the spring fight might have had a chance, but his signal defeat yesterday spells doom for any man who takes a chance with the Allegheny administration forces in February. It means an undoubted victory for the Republican nominee. More than this, the prestige of the Robinson brothers is gone in the Fourth ward, and that big ward cannot be relied upon in the future to bring in big majorities for Wyman's candidates.

The election will most likely be followed by a wholesale dismissal of city employes, for Wyman will seek revenge and will get it by sacrificing those whom he knows, or suspects, were guilty of political apostacy.

Deep but Quiet Interest.

Seldom in Allegheny has the election been so quiet, even in an off year, as it was yesterday. This condition was the more unusual because of the intense interest and the heavy vote that marked the day. In prior years there has been considerable apathy at state and county elections, but this element was missing yesterday. The campaign was one of publicity and hard work on both sides, and the result was deep interest, and the appearance at the polling places of hundreds who often neglect the formality of casting their ballot.

Early indications pointed to a Republican victory. At noon Judge Elliott Rodgers, who was working in the Eleventh ward, said:

"My prediction of 2,000 majority for the Republican ticket will be fulfilled easily. The prospect looks better today than it did last night, and things were bright then."

Mayor Wyman was as busy as a bound boy at a husking all day, and visited every one of the 15 wards. He was confident the Citizens would carry Allegheny.

Policemen Were Disgruntled.

The police were more in evidence than ever before at the voting booths, but they were not practicing any collar-and-elbow tactics this time. The police, or a large majority of them, expressed their sentiments before the election and they did not favor the city administration. Four-per-cent assessments are not popular, and the blue coats showed their disfavor yesterday. One policeman declared at city hall yesterday afternoon that he voted the straight Republican ticket and was the first man to vote in his district. If the administration expected the police to exert themselves for the machine ticket there was disappointment.

At the 88 polling places throughout the city 159 uniformed men and 30 plainclothes men were stationed. The night force reported off at City hall and the other two patrol stations at 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning, and the city was without protection during the remainder of the day. Both the day and night forces got orders to be at the polls and to remain there all day. All were expected to work for the Citizens ticket. But there was very little display of interest on the part of the police, and although they stayed about the polls, their efforts for the Citizens ticket were slight.

Automobiles Played Important Part.

Automobiles played a conspicuous part in the election. Mayor Wyman shattered all tradition and gave up his horse and buggy for a big gasoline car. Elliott Rodgers was out in his touring car and worked indefatigably for the Republican ticket. City Chairman R. H. Jackson of the Citizens, and City Treasurer A. L. Robinson occupied a machine and traveled all over the city. The automobile Robinson engaged during the morning broke down. Another was hired and for six hours' use of it Mr. Robinson had to pay $75. The deal was made in front of City hall at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, and when the bill was handed to Robinson he made a speech. He wanted the machine, however, and went down into his jeans for the money.

Before noon 301 ballots had been dropped into the box in Elliott Rodgers' precinct in the Eleventh ward, and the judge said he thought about 300 of them were straight Republican votes. The Eleventh will probably make a record.

In the big First ward there was not the trouble and blood-letting that was expected. The presence of detectives engaged by the Republican organization put a damper on the plans of the machine workers there. It was known that a large number of repeaters were in the city, and that an attempt would be made to vote them, at least in the First ward.

OHIO RESULT IN DOUBT

of definite news has been obtainable tonight, the interest in the state contest and the long delay in counting the vote serving to suppress reports on everything below governor.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 7.—Since the early reports which estimates the plurality of Pattison (Dem.), for governor, at 10,000 or 12,000 in Hamilton county, and a like amount in Cuyahoga county, the returns have failed to indicate the election of Pattison. Taking 220 precincts in Cincinnati, 40 in Columbus, 60 in Cleveland, and 16 in Toledo, the average Democratic gain is 106 to the precinct. In 125 precincts received outside of the above cities the Democratic gain is 23 to the precinct. Estimating the 733 precincts in the above cities and the 3,390 precincts outside, gives a Democratic gain of 189,568, or 40,821 votes less than Laylin's (Rep.), for secretary of state plurality in 1904.

Cincinnati complete gives Dempsey (Dem.), for mayor, 40,373; Gordon (Rep.), 34,372.

At midnight Chairman Dick gave the following statement to the Associated Press:

"The election returns are fragmentary and meager at this hour, delay being due to the large number of candidates and a great deal of local ticket scratching. While it is not practicable as yet to approximate definite figures, indications clearly point to the re-election of Gov. Herrick and the entire Republican state ticket by safe pluralities.

"CHARLES DICK, Chairman."

CLEVELAND, Nov. 7.—At midnight the returns from only 90 precincts out of 246 in Cleveland had been reported, the delay in the count being caused by the general scratching of ballots. In these 90 precincts Pattison (Dem.), for governor, had a plurality over Herrick (Rep.), of 3,425.

The Republican leaders concede that with the possible exception of Alexander Hadden, Republican for probate judge, the Democrats have made a clean sweep of all city and county candidates. The Leader, Independent Republican, says that Johnson (Dem.), for mayor, will have a plurality of 12,000.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 7.—George B. Cox concedes Dempsey's election as mayor by 15,000 and that Pattison carries Hamilton county by 12,000. He says Pattison, Dem., has carried the state by 60,000.

Forty precincts in Ohio, outside of Hamilton, Cuyahoga, Franklin and Lucas counties show Democratic gains of 25 to the precinct. From 65 precincts returned to the board of election it is estimated that the Democrats have carried this city and county by about 8,000 and that Pattison has the same plurality.

PRESIDENT GREETED BY HIS NEIGHBORS

Mr. Roosevelt Casts His Vote at Oyster Bay, and Chats With Old Friends.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—President Roosevelt reached Washington from Oyster bay at 4:40 o'clock this afternoon, having been on the road since 12:30 last night, with the exception of 20 minutes he spent at Oyster Bay, casting his vote and chatting with his neighbors.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Nov. 7.—President Roosevelt's townsmen gave him a cordial reception when he went to the polling place today, and he stopped and chatted with them a moment.

"I have just completed a southern trip," he remarked. "It was very pleasant, very pleasant, indeed. With it I have now spoken in every state and territory in the union, and now I am through. Let someone else do the talking."

"Mr. President," broke in a neighbor, "Uncle Amos is downstairs and waiting to shake hands with you."

Uncle Amos Borum is 72, and proud of the distinction that he is the oldest stage driver on Long Island.

"Glad to see you, Uncle Amos," said the President. "I remember you used to drive me to Syosset, 30 years ago."

"Yes, and 40 years ago," piped up Uncle Amos.

"Now, don't make it too long," said the President, holding up a warning finger.

LOSES OTHER HONORS.

One of Triplets to Have Borne His Name Had He Won.

County Recorder J. Denny O'Neil lost an additional honor, aside from that of maintaining his present official position, by being defeated at the polls yesterday. Triplets were recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fuehrer of 2263 Fifth avenue, McKeesport. All are boys.

Two were named Harry and Raymond and the third was left unnamed until the election returns were in, in the hope of naming him after Recorder O'Neil should he be re-elected. The boy's name will not be J. Denny nor will it be O'Neil.

First Rest in 60 Years.

DES MOINES, IOWA, Nov. 7.—For the first time in 60 years, November is passing without a general election in Iowa, the biennial election amendment having continued all state officers in power for another 12 months.

ELECTION IS VERY QUIET IN SOUTH SIDE WARDS

Vote Is Heaviest Since the Last Presidential Election and Is Held With Little Disorder.

"The man who wants to start trouble at the South Side polls has no more chance than a rabbit," said Congressman A. J. Barchfeld yesterday afternoon, as he sat with the Republican watchers in the Second precinct of the Twenty-sixth ward. He had received reports from all districts and these showed that the balloting had been exceedingly heavy and that both parties had been working too industriously to allow time for arguments. The indications were that the poll for all the South Side wards will be the largest since the last presidential election.

It looked like a Christmas afternoon on the South Side. There was scarcely a policeman in sight in uniform, all the guardians of the law being too busy hustling for their quota of 10 votes for the Citizens to allow much time for the exercise of their duties.

The voting was devoid of picturesque features. The hustlers contented themselves with getting out the stay-at-homes by using the telephone or by calling personally on the voters. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon there was a rush at the mills to bring out the men "between heats," and the gates of the big plants along the river front were besieged by the workers of both parties. There was a little noise at the Humboldt school building, and the polls there were closed a few minutes, but the trouble was settled amicably.

BERRY WINS IN MERCER.

Republicans Carry County on Rest of State and Entire County Ticket.

SHARON, PA., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—Returns received from Sharon, Greenville, Mercer and Sharpsville, complete, indicate Berry has carried Mercer county and his majority over Plummer will be about 1,000. Berry carried every precinct in Sharon except one and has a majority of 32. Greenville gave him 154 majority, Sharpsville 123 and Fredonia 46.

The rest of the state and entire county ticket is safe. The Republican county ticket elected is as follows: Sheriff, J. W. Hawthorne; prothonotary, George H. Fowler; treasurer, M. C. Zahniser; clerk of courts, Hugh O. Jones; recorder, D. C. Young; commissioners, James B. Gill and E. M. Hossack (Rep.), Frank R. Craig (Dem.); district attorney, E. C. Cochrane; poor directors, J. L. Heeveler and H. C. Comstock.

Bookwalter Is Elected.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Nov. 7.—The election of former Mayor Charles A. Bookwalter (Rep.), as mayor of Indianapolis is conceded.

CITY PARTY WINS IN THE PHILADELPHIA ELECTION

time the polls closed confidence in a Republican victory.

While the streets have been jammed since the polls closed, particularly around bulletin boards, there is less enthusiasm than would be expected. The victors can hardly believe the figures and the defeated have nothing to shout about.

Used the Police Force.

The "full power" of the police force was exerted to defeat the Republican ticket. Mayor Weaver said it would be, and under the direction of ex-Judge Gordon, the mayor's pledge was kept. Policemen to the number of 4,165 were at the polls from the time they opened until they closed. Three-fourths of this number are regulars, the rest were specials. There are 1,094 polling places, which would permit the assignment of four officers at each voting precinct, but the distribution made gave the downtown wards a greater number than were sent to the less turbulent or residential sections.

No officers were provided by the Republican organization. Sheriff Miles had intended to appoint deputies, but found he could not do so legally. Then again, the Republican leaders decided it would be best to place responsibility for order on Mayor Weaver, regardless of the fact they knew the police had instructions "to go the limit" to secure a victory for the City party. Thousands of votes were lost by this decision. Tension between the two forces was so acute that had a force of sheriff's deputies appeared at the polls the battle would not have been one of ballots, but of bullets.

Kept Voters in Jail.

In the name of the mayor and "reform" the police covered themselves with "glory." That's what Weaver calls it. Republican ward leaders, division workers and election officers, to the number of 385, were arrested last night and today. All night long and up to the hour the polls closed, patrol wagons were driven at a gallop. Early this forenoon every cell at City hall was filled and the overflow was being sent to district station houses. Many were bailed and returned to their divisions, but a majority were not given hearings and were not released until after the polls closed.

In the Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and other wards the police this morning arrested the entire election boards, closing the polls for hours at a time. One polling place in the Fifth ward was closed at 9 o'clock this morning. At 5:05 this afternoon a new board was sworn in, but only City party men were allowed to vote. The Fifth ward has a reputation for election frauds. Harbormaster Sam Maloney is the organization leader. He was arrested early today, taken to the nearest police station, searched, and then sent to City hall, where he gave bail in the sum of $600. Maloney says the result will be contested, that Republicans who voted risked their lives and that the police forced many voters to mark in the City party square or suffer arrest, or worse.

Polls Raided by Police.

Senator Penrose's district, the Eighth of the Eighth ward, was raided by the police early and the polls closed for an hour or more. Election officers refused to proceed because the police insisted on remaining inside the voting place, interfering with the voters. An appeal was made to Judge Bregy who directed the policemen to remain outside, unless summoned by the judge of election. Then the polls were reopened, but were surrounded the balance of the day by regulars and specials, whose threatening attitude prevented many form voting.

In order to check the Republican vote in the Twentieth ward, State Senator William Keyser was arrested late this afternoon. The charge is "conspiracy within the past year to cast fraudulent votes." This looks rather funny, but it was sufficient for the "reformers." Common Councilman John Hammond of the Seventh ward was also given a ride in a patrol wagon. The charge against this venerable Republican leader was that he vouched for a negro not entitled to vote.

Mob Cheered and Jeered.

Not only did the police superintend the act of placing the ballots in the ballot boxes, but they watched the count. Supt. Taylor this afternoon directed that one or more officers should be stationed inside every polling place during the count and that they should not lose sight for a minute of the ballot boxes. The legality of such supervision was questioned by election officers. But they were powerless in the presence of the force, and obliged to submit.

At city hall, however, was the real heart of the reform hysteria. All day long the great court yard was filled with a mob which cheered and jeered. As the patrol wagons arrived with their prisoners, the mob shrieked and hissed them. Then it would give relief to its frenzy by cheering the mayor and the City party candidates. Not even during the riotous scenes of the gas lease period were there such sensational demonstrations. It reminded one of the reign of terror. All that was required to make it realistic was a leader and the guillotine.

PROFESSIONAL SPORTING BY JOHN H. GRUBER.

KISKI SUCCESSFULLY DEFENDS ITS CHAMPIONSHIP

COLLEGE AND NON-PROFESSIONAL SPORTING BY RICHARD R. GUY.

KISKI STILL CHAMPIONS; WINS FROM SHADYSIDE

Up-Country Preps. Capture Annual Affair, 10 to 6, After Stubbornly Contested Game.

KUMLER'S FINE FIELD GOAL

The Kiskiminitas Springs school eleven, well coached and a powerful school fighting machine, won its annual championship game from Shadyside academy yesterday afternoon at Friendship park by the surprisingly low score of 10 to 6.

Kiski again annexed the championship and took that title home to Saltsburg last night, but not until after one of the most stubbornly fought school games ever played at Friendship park.

A touchdown on an eight-yard line buck by McCreight, closely following a fumble by Ches. Babst, the Shadyside quarterback, and a beautiful goal from the field from the 35-yard line by Kumler, the big captain, all in the first half, gave Kiski its points. Bill Wharton, who was one of the bright performers of the afternoon for Shadyside, ran 25 yards on the double pass in the second half for Shadyside's touchdown, and Babst kicked goal.

Kiski was expected to run up a large score on Shadyside. The field, which was heavy, suited the East Enders despite the fact they were the lighter team. Kiski showed the effects of its good coaching and played well, although at times the team acted as though the eleven players were each trying to get in different directions. But taken as a whole the team played championship ball. Shadyside fought hard all the way, and every man got into all the plays. Both sides were stronger on the offense, but the lighter Shadyside line stiffened at crucial stages, and worked hard to stave off the fierce line bucks of Kumler, McCreight and McGregor.

Kumler's Fine Field Goal.

McCoy and Wharton were the only men on the Shadyside team who could make any impression against the line. Babst picked out the center of the Kiski line as the most vulnerable point and he kept driving McCoy and Wharton against this spot when Shadyside had the ball.

Kiski massed on the tackles and made its gains from three to 10 yards at a time. It was in punting, though, that Kiski had the advantage, and this, in a large measure, brought victory to the Kiski camp. Three times on the kick-offs McCutcheon did not get the ball past the center man. Wagner got the ball when it should have been sent back to the backfield men. Quarterback Harry Wilson had Kumler kicking in the first half, but he seldom called upon him in the second half to boot the ball.

Kumler's goal from the field was the first seen in any local championship school games in years, and it was a very pretty performance. He stood on the 35-yard line on the last down, and while Wilson was calling off the signals coolly shook the mud off the toe of his right shoe. When the pass was made back to him he took the ball as though there was no rush line coming in his direction, but dropped the ball to the ground and heaved it high in the air and it sailed straight between the bars, going at least 15 yards, still in the air, back of the posts. The 2,500 spectators gave vent to one loud cheer in recognition of the fine kick.

Held on Three-Yard Line.

Both sides used straight football tactics, although Shadyside scored its only touchdown on a trick play. When this play was attempted later in the half McGregor hurled back Wharton for a loss of 10 yards. Kumler, on a fake kick, ran 30 yards and Wilson got in a 30-yard run on another fake kick, going through center with the ball. Wharton hauled down both men in the open fields. Following these runs Kiski lost the ball on its 10-yard line on a fumble and when it had the ball again and plugged away until it reached the Shadyside three-yard line, the doughty East Enders braced and held for downs. Kiski lost the ball three times on fumbles, Shadyside losing the same number of times. Kiski was penalized for 45 yards to Shadyside's 20.

Shadyside won the toss and elected to defend the west goal. Kumler kicked off to Wharton on the five-yard line. Wharton got back 15 yards. Deutchon was given the ball for the first attempt and he fumbled, but McCoy saved it. McCoy made first down on a straight line buck and on the second down Blake kicked 30 yards to McGregor.

Lewis banged into the tackles for two yards, then fumbled, but Wilson regained it. On the next down Kumler booted the ball high in the air and down to Babst, who caused a mighty sigh among the Shadyside adherents by fumbling and McGregor fell on it. Graham and Lewis made three yards on two attempts and then Lewis made first down. Graham got into the right side of the line for two yards and then "Stubby" McCreight was handed the ball. This young engine shoved Deutchon aside and ran eight yards for the first touchdown. Kumler kicked goal.

McCreight Is Called Back.

On the kick-off McCutcheon kicked 10 yards to Wagner. Lewis and Graham tore off a first down and then Kiski was penalized 15 yards for holding. McGregor went around end for eight yards and Kumler, on a fake kick and unaided, ran 30 yards, Wharton getting him in the open field. McGregor fumbled on the 10-yard line and Lally secured it for Shadyside. Blake kicked but 20 yards. On the first line-up McCreight ran up the field for a touchdown, but the officials called him back and penalized Kiski 15 yards because Wilson held in the line. Wharton got behind the line and nailed McGregor for a loss of two yards. Kumler fell back, ostensibly for a kick, but Wilson, instead of passing back, kept the ball and dashed through center and ran 30 yards. Two plunges had the ball on the three-yard line, but Shadyside's defense stiffened and held, forcing Kiski to surrender the ball. The cheering in the Shadyside bleachers was tumultous. Blake kicked 30 yards to McGregor. Again Lally nailed McGregor for no gain. On the next down Kumler fell back and kicked his goal from the field.

McCutcheon again kicked to Wagner. Kiski, after gaining 20 yards, kicked to Babst on the 15-yard line. McCoy and Wharton, between them, made two first downs, and then Blake kicked. Kiski had the ball in midfield when time was up.

Wharton Makes Touchdown.

McCutcheon kicked off to Kumler, who ran back the kick 20 yards. Kumler kicked 40 yards. McCoy, in two attempts at hurdling, made first down and then Kiski was penalized five yards. Wharton waded through for first down and McCoy made another first down.

Blake's punt just went over the line and rolled to Wilson, who was back 30 yards. Kumler kicked to Babst, who returned, and on the exchange Shadyside lost five yards. Kiski kicked again and Blake gained two yards at center, McCoy three and Martin made another first down. McCoy raised cheers by wading into the line for five yards and then by hurdling for five more. Martin added two more and McCoy hurdled again for two yards. Blake kicked and Kiski had the ball on Shadyside's 35-yard line.

Kumler hit Uptegraff for eight yards and on the next play Wilson made a poor pass to McCreight, who dropped the ball on the 30-yard line. McCoy and Wharton each made a first down. On the 25-yard line Babst called for a shift in the line. Kiski, though the old wing shift was to be played, and accordingly moved over, too. Babst took the pass and started around the end, but suddenly Wharton appeared and Babst shot the ball into his arms.

Wharton dug around the end like a greyhound after a hare and with Deutchon, who bowled over Andrews, ran the distance for a touchdown amid great enthusiasm. Babst kicked the goal.

The ball changed hands several times the remainder of the half, Kiski having it at the blow of the whistle on its 40-yard line. The line-up:

WESTMINSTER WINS GAME AT FRANKLIN, 17 TO 0

FRANKLIN, PA., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—Reinforced by Coach Lang and Hayes of the Latrobe eleven, Westminster college defeated the Franklin A. C. this afternoon 17 to 0. The visitors outclassed the home team in every department. The playing of M. Scott at quarter for Westminster was the feature. His quarterback kick enabled the visitors to score in the first half. Early in the second half he executed a quarterback run for 55 yards, which resulted in the second touchdown. The last touchdown was the result of a fumble by Franklin. Secret Work at Princeton.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—The Tiger coaches are keeping the squad pretty steadily down to secret work nowadays, and today there was no admittance to the field. The work is taking a desperate spurt and in the merciless training the men are now receiving little mercy. The coaches realize that from now it is a case of hit or miss. Every man must be trained to a point where he can put everything into the Yale game, and if he gets hurt in the process, why, that's a chance that has to be run. Cooney came out of the Columbia game in such very bad condition that it has been questioned whether he will be in first-class form next Saturday. The condition that he is in is well evidenced by the fact that he was unable to play in the Dartmouth game till defeat was so imminent that the coaches could not keep him out. Dillon has been in a condition almost as bad and when Dartmouth was played, there was hardly a man that had recovered from injuries.

Capt. Costello on Field.

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—This afternoon Cornell's varsity was given a stiff scrimmage with the freshmen eleven. The varsity was kept on the defensive the entire time, for the coaches are extending themselves as much as possible to fix up a defense for the Princeton game. Cook was not allowed in the scrimmage, as his knee has to be taken care of. Dann replaced him in the line-up. Thompson, the big guard, did not report for practice today. Capt. Costello appeared on the field today for the first time this week with his right hand in a sling. This is very painful and healing only very slowly. The day was rainy and the gridiron too muddy for rough work, so the varsity were put through their paces against the freshmen at the northwestern corner of the field on the dry ground.

The Troy Hill and Crescents of the Allegheny section met last night on the Federal alleys. The Troy Hill team came from the mount and were out for victory. And how they roped the Crescents in for all three games would drive the defeated politicians to desperation after the election. Troy Hill started off like a house afire in the first game, making the pins fly to the extent of 877, but fell woefully by the wayside in the second game. In the third they came back to earth and chalked up another good score. Schroeffel was the boss bowler, having high score of 220 and best average of 178. Last night the Mercantile league met in its regular scheduled contests, 10 of the 12 teams participating. In stating that the games were exciting is putting it mildly. The noise produced by the enthusiastic pin knights drowned all the noise made by the election fun-makers on the street below. Ordinary scores were the rule, but the McCreerys carried off the honors of the evening by making a score of 893, and the best average, 775. Matt of the McCreerys was the high score artist of the contest, knocking the pins down to the extent of 202 in the second game. NIAGARA IS BEATEN BY THE PITTSBURGH LYCEUM

The Niagara university eleven was beaten by the Pittsburgh Lyceum yesterday on the bluff, 11 to 6. Lyceum was the first to score, Brazil being pushed over for a touchdown shortly after the kick-off. McInerney kicked an easy goal.

Niagara scored soon after on a sensational 50-yard run by Lowney. O'Rourke kicked the goal. The half ended in a tie, 6 to 6.

The second half was fast. Lyceum received the ball on the kick-off and by steady plunges and rushes soon had the ball on Niagara's five-yard line, where Quinlin was pushed over. McInerney missed goal.

Soon after a play came up which started much wrangling and kicking. Niagara had the ball on its 30-yard line, when Lowney, by clever dodging, eluded the whole Lyceum team and ran 75 yards for a touchdown. But he was brought back and Niagara was penalized five yards for holding in the line. The Niagara players made a protest and threatened to quit; but was urged by its coach to play out the game. The ball remained mostly in Lyceum's territory after that, and the game ended with the ball in Niagara's possession on Lyceum's 35-yard line.

McInerney, Brazil and Quinlin played a strong game for Lyceum, while Lowney was pretty near the whole Niagara team. Line-up:

Capt. Shevlin Injured in Game.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—Captain Thomas L. Shevlin was injured in the Columbia game more seriously than even he knew. Last night he thought a lameness of his back was only a slight matter, but today he was very sore and stiff. If he is called upon to play against Brown next Saturday he will wear a harness. Jones and Flinn are still laid up and neither was able to get into the signal drill on the field today. There was no scrimmage lineup.

Official for Game.

The officials for the W. U. P. and W. and J. game have been selected. Murphy of Brown will be the referee and Okeson of Lehigh will umpire. Bill Church of Princeton, who umpired the Kiski-Shadyside game yesterday, will be head linesman.

SPORTING NOTES.

Joe Grim, the Italian welterweight, is giving boxing exhibitions at a Brooklyn theater.

The owner of Dan Patch states that the great pacer will never engage in competition again.

Bob Fitzsimmons and Jack O'Brien will meet on a date between December 20 and 30 at San Francisco.

Ban Johnson has decided that he will not remove the offices of the American league from Chicago to New York.

Three boxers claim the lightweight championship of Pennsylvania—Harry Lewis, Young Erne and Jack Blackburn.

It is said that the Philadelphia American league club will trade Davy Hoffman to the New York Americans for Patsy Dougherty.

What was to have been a 10-round bout at Reading, Pa., on Wednesday night, between Tim Callahan, of Philadelphia, and Jack Cardiff, of Reading, was postponed on account of small attendance.

The Western Baseball league again made Maurice (Tip) O'Neil president of the organization at the annual meeting, and introduced Ducky Holmes of the White Sox to the management of the Lincoln (Neb.) club.

Jack Johnson, the colored heavyweight, is getting ready to show the white people of London how clever he is. Johnson will sail for England shortly and expects to get a bout with some good man before the National Sporting club.

At Hot Springs on Monday night Mike Schreck lost to Jack Crawford, of Australia, on a foul in the third round. Schreck struck Crawford while the latter was on his knees and then struck the referee for giving his opponent the decision.

Jack Sheridan, the veteran umpire of President Johnson's American league staff, left on Monday for Los Angeles, Cal., where he expects to enter the undertaking business. "Jack" appeared to be in earnest in his final statement that he has retired from the baseball business.

The admirers of Buddy Ryan, the Chicago welterweight, will be pleased to hear that he has not gone blind, as reported. Johnny Reid, Ryan's manager, says that Buddy's eyes are as good as ever, but that Buddy is disgusted with the boxing game and will likely give it up for some other trade or profession.

W. U. P. IS AN EASY WINNER

Franklin and Marshall Outclassed by Locals and Are Beaten by 53 to 0.

JOE THOMPSON DOES WELL

W. U. P. completely outplayed Franklin and Marshall at Exposition park yesterday, rolling up 53 points to nothing. The game was W. U. P.'s from start to finish, the first touchdown being a matter of some three minutes' play and succeeding scores following at intervals of from two to five minutes.

Mehl, Thompson and Klawuhn in the W. U. P. backfield worked as a unit, plunging through the line and around the ends for long gains and seldom needed more than two trials to gain the necessary distance. The F. and M. ends seemed powerless to break up the Wup interference on the long end runs and Thompson, Klawuhn, Frye, East and Q. Banbury got away with long gains. The feature was Banbury's 80-yard run for a touchdown toward the close of the first half. Banbury took the ball around the right end and with good interference and clever headwork broke through the whole F. and M. team for his only touchdown. The local varsity showed up in splendid style all through the game. The team work was greatly improved and Boisseau ran off a large variety of plays with but one fumble, which was recovered.

The W. U. P. line with Zieg back at left guard proved exceptionally strong. Zieg's work on the kickoff and at goal-kicking was a feature.

Franklin and Marshall proved a great deal heavier than was anticipated, but was handicapped by slow starting and the failure of the linemen to hold their opponents. On the W. U. P. team Perry was badly bruised up and Q. Banbury got a nasty bump which forced him to retire just at the end of the first half.

The reappearance of Mehl and Capt. Thompson in the lineup was greeted with cheers by the students. Mehl's savage linebucking called forth repeated applause. Franklin and Marshall three times held the locals for downs, but each time W. U. P. came on again with irresistible force, tearing up the F. and M. line until the goal line was crossed. W. U. P. was penalized frequently throughout the game, losing a total of 65 yards in five penalties. The lineup:

Johnstown Quakers Win.

TWO BOLD HOLD-UPS.

One Man Is Brutally Beaten by Boys, Who Drag Him Into an Alley.

Two bold hold-ups occurred last night, mere boys being responsible for one outrage. As usual, there was no policeman near and the highwaymen escaped. While Richard Powell, aged 38, of 15 South Fourteenth street, was on his way home at 6 o'clock, he was attacked by four boys in Second avenue, near Try street, and robbed of five cents, all the money he had. Powell has just reached an alley opening into Second avenue, when the boys jumped out, knocked him down, kicked and beat him, and then dragged him into the alley and went through his pockets. Powell was cut about the face and head and his body was badly bruised. He managed to crawl out of the alley and some people, seeing his condition, took him to the Homeopathic hospital.

Emil Kugle of 1707 Hawkins alley, South Side, was assaulted and robbed at the north end of the South Tenth street bridge early last evening. Kugie was waiting for a car when three roughly-dressed young men held him up. He resisted and was beaten. His assailants took $3.75 and a gold watch and fled across the bridge. A stranger, attracted by Kugie's cries, went to his aid, and the two chased the hold-up men over the bridge, up South Tenth street and across the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston railroad tracks.

BELASCO IS ORDERED TO APPEAR IN COURT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Judge Wright of the supreme court of the District of Columbia issued an order today directing David Belasco, the theatrical manager, to appear in court next Friday and show cause why he should not be adjudged in contempt. The order is the result of the disobedience by the management of the Belasco theater of restraining order issued by the court in connection with a controversy between them and some of the tenants of the theater building.

CIRCUS MENAGERIE TAKES TO WOODS

HOUSTON, TEX., Nov. 7.—A train carrying the paraphernalia of a small circus, was wrecked today, near Temple, Texas, and nearly all the animals escaped to the woods. Something akin to panic prevails in the rural district. The wreck was caused by the train breaking in two and running together.

ALL POLICE ON DUTY AT POLLS

City Employes Spend the Day Attempting to Intimidate the Independent Voter.

VERY HEAVY VOTE IS CAST

Voters who dared to exercise their right of suffrage without first committing themselves to the support of Bigelow-Hays-Wallace ring pluggers, were compelled to run a gauntlet of policemen, city employes and ward heelers, in every polling place in the city, with few exceptions, yesterday. A tour of the city yesterday afternoon failed to reveal one solitary policeman on duty, even on such prominent thoroughfares as Fifth avenue, Forbes street, Center avenue, Frankstown avenue and Larimer avenue, although an exception was noted in Forbes street, in front of the Oakland police station, in which a polling place was located.

In the East End and hill districts the polls were "carefully guarded" by the police, as many as three and four being stationed at one polling place to "assist" the Citizens watchers. The thinking ability of the present organization of the "finest" is best illustrated by an experience in the First district of the Nineteenth ward, where two policemen sought the aid of Citizens party watchers to show them how and where to mark their ballots.

Educational Test is Needed.

In the Second district of the Twentieth ward the same aid was required by two policemen, while other East End polling places and the hill district election places reported the same intellectual weakness on the part of the police.

Much trouble was experienced by uncommitted voters who dared to cast their ballots without paying attention to the overtures of the Citizens party pluggers, and in many instances they were told they did not live where they had presumed their homes were and their families were located.

One of the most glaring instances of boldness was the invasion of the polling place of the Third district of the Nineteenth ward by City Detective Homer Crooks, who took it upon himself to pass judgment upon eligible and ineligible voters. After kindly remonstrances on the part of Overseer William Geish had failed of respect, and after Crooks could not be convinced that under the election law prohibiting city employes to act as watchers he had no right to challenge voters, word was sent to the office of the county detectives, and Supt. Robinson made information before Alderman Toole charging Crooks with misdemeanor.

Arrested and Gave Bail.

County Detectives Schoenfeldt and Armstrong were sent out to the polling place and placed him under arrest. He later gave $1,000 bail before Alderman Means for his appearance. Bail was furnished by M. Cancellierie. Crooks, upon his release, immediately went back to the polling place and continued his operations—though he was careful to "work" only on the outside.

Another feature of the election in the city was the liberality of "spirit" that prevailed. If ever the extended olive branch with a bottle of beer or glass of whisky on the end worked to the welfare of a candidate on the Prohibition ticket, Mr. Berry should be grateful for the vote polled for him in Pittsburgh. In the East End and hill districts the closing of the saloons was not materially felt by any who had a thirst, together with sympathy for the Citizens or Prohibition parties. At nearly every polling place in these districts a canteen was within easy walking distance to the ballot box. In the Twenty-first, as well as in other wards in these two districts, the Citizens and Democratic workers were in possession of keys to the same liquor warehouse, and any who appeared to suffer from the chill that prevailed were quickly relieved upon application, and in most cases relief was offered without application.

Big Vote Out Early.

Notwithstanding the bold methods employed by the city authorities in their frantic effort to swing the election at any price and by any means, the polling of votes began early, and almost without exception a heavy vote was cast in every district before noon. In many cases it was reported the morning vote equaled that of a presidential election, and in a few instances exceeded that of the last national election.

Director Bigelow voted at 10 o'clock in the Margaretta school house, the First district of the Nineteenth ward. Former Senator Flinn and Candidate Homer L. Castle voted shortly before that hour in the Fulton school district of the same ward.

In the Thirteenth ward there was much challenging of negro voters on the part of the Citizens party pluggers, and demands for tax receipts were made in almost every instance. They were produced without hesitation, and, notwithstanding much interference, the ballots were cast. In the Eleventh district of the Fourteenth ward much delay was caused due to the failure of the register to record names of a number of roomers in the district, many of whom had voted several times previously at the same polling place. In order to permit these men to cast their ballots friends had to vouch for them and papers had to be signed and sworn to by both voter and voucher before ballots could be cast. Much delay was caused, but the vote was nevertheless heavy.

WESTMORELAND IS FIRM.

Plummer Carries County by Three Thousand and Herbert Probably Wins Commissionership.

GREENSBURG, PA., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—Returns from almost one-fourth of the 170 districts of the county indicate that Plummer will have a majority of over 3,000. In 37 districts he received 3,257 to Berry's 2,258. The same districts in 1903 gave Mathues 1,932 and Hill 1,125. The Republican county ticket will win by majorities ranging from 4,000 to 5,000.

The race for minority county commissioner is exceedingly close. In the 37 districts, Herbert has 2,100 and Shupe 1,915. Loughry, Bovard and Kettering, the Republican candidates for poor director, will win by good margins. For minority poor director Gay is an easy winner by the early returns, with Somers and Hamel running close. Bovard is expected to lead the county ticket, and will win for treasurer by at least 5,000. Gallagher will have almost as large a majority for recorder, and Wynn has a big lead over Ambrose.

WIN OUT IN CRAWFORD.

Republican Ticket Carries the County In a Decidedly Warm Campaign.

MEADVILLE, PA., Nov. 7.—Returns from the different precincts in the county are slow coming in, but from those at hand at 1 1o'clock, covering 21 precincts out of 63, indicate a complete Republican victory in the county.

Robert P. Marshall will without doubt be elected sheriff, D. T. McKay, Republican, prothonotary; A. G. Oster, register and recorder; O. C. Kent, reRubilcan, district attorney; H. H. Dinney, Republican, clerk of the courts; and Whitney Braymer, Republican, commissioner. There is a close race between Beatty, Democrat and Benner for commissioner, and C. D. Roudebush, Democrat, over McCutcheon, Republican, for county treasurer, stands a good chance for election.

STANDS UP FOR WITTE.

Brother of London's Chief Rabbi Says He Will Be the Savior of Russian People.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Elkan Adler, brother of Chief Rabbi Adler of London, who has just arrived here from St. Petersburg, said today:

"Count Witte is the only man standing between Russia and anarchy. He is meeting with terrible opposition from the reactionaries, who are also directly responsible for the massacres in South Russia. Count Witte is distinctly friendly to the Jews, and is in no way responsible for the massacres. It is his ambition to be the remaker of Russia and I believe that if he is left alone he will succeed. Count Witte's good faith is beyond all doubt."

RETURNS MAKE CITIZENS DROOP

Start Out Enthusiastically, but Grow Sad-Faces as the Figures Come In.

FINALLY GIVE UP IN DESPAIR

The Citizens leaders in the fire alarm office last night heard the torturing messages of their defeat. At midnight they practically admitted a Republican victory, and the crowds, which for four hours had jubilantly predicted a landslide for sham reform, sadly left the building. Mayor Hays, Director E. M. Bigelow and some of their closest political allies still remained and with long faces still told one another that their combination had won.

As early as 11 o'clock the returns showed clearly that Allegheny county had redeemed its political good name, and some of these whose knees were weak, stated in tones almost heartrending that "things looked bad." This was the beginning of the end. Half an hour later it was said there "wasn't much chance." At midnight the weak-kneed brethren filed out in melancholy procession and the whole thing was declared to be "all off."

Joe Howley walked in for a few minutes. The light of hope did not radiate from his countenance. He was frank and improved the good of his soul by an honest confession. He said:

"I cannot see a 4,000 Citizens-Democratic majority in the city. The Republican county ticket will be elected. There is no doubt of it."

About this hour Mayor Hays was asked to concede a Republican victory.

"It's too early," he said. "We can't tell anything about it until we get more returns. I can't say any more."

Director Bigelow really didn't want to talk much about the election. He rocked himself in Chief Miles S. Humphries' office chair and attempted to lead the conversation to floral specimens for the parks, or prize animals for the zoo. Of course, he couldn' help drifting back to the all-important topic, and when somebody happened in with another package of discouragement, he wondered—and everybody else wondered. At 10 o'clock they were still wondering.

The returns commenced arriving at the fire alarm office shortly after 8 o'clock. These came from the Ninth ward, where a Republican vote is as rare as water in the Sahara, but these astounding Democratic-Citizens majorities were multiplied by all the city election districts.

It is not surprising that the results reached by this method of applied mathematics footed up "reform" Pittsburgh majorities as high as 13,000. For about an hour and a half it looked as if the G. O. P. had been annihilated.

And then——!

The East End wards began coming in. There was a change, and the predicted majorities began to drop. The scene was pitiful to behold. Prophesies were made frequently, and when the hoped-for figures dropped below 5,000, the mathematical theorem was changed to a system that would puzzle the most expert arithmetician. When the cause became hopeless, Republican returns were quietly declared to "have no bearing on the results."

"While the prospects for the Citizens-Democrats are not as bright as I could wish, yet I feel that the other people have been making extravagant claims. It is too early to predict what the result will be in Allegheny county."

This was the statement made by Director E. M. Bigelow shortly after midnight, when he turned up his coat collar and started home, after hearing the returns in the fire alarm office. He was accompanied by Mayor Hays, who took an equally gloomy view of the outlook. Neither would concede a Republican victory.

At 1 o'clock this morning the Citizens crowd diminished to a mere corporal's guard. Controller John B. Larkin came in at this time and for a moment infused something like hope into the sinking hearts of his followers. The controller was as silent as the Sphynx. His countenance was as calm as an old player in a big poker game, but those who saw him come in knew only too well that he held no royal flush.

Mr Larkin sat down in the midst of the group and commenced figuring. He is a magician at figures and some might have supposed that he still might make those returns read like victory. But this was not his object. At length he turned and sent a thrill of terror through his little audience. He pointed out how the Citizens had lost in wards where they had boasted of fighting strength, and that their majorities had been materially cut down in otherwards where they had expected to roll up a good, fat surplus. Then Mr. Larkin asked:

"Why?"

There was no answer. The meeting broke up in dismal foreboding of next future.

BUTLER STANDS BY REPUBLICAN TICKET

Entire State and County Ticket Wins Out in the Famous Buckwheat Belt.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

BUTLER, PA., Nov. 7.—The indications are Plummer has carried the county by 400 votes. Twenty-seven precincts give Plummer a lead of 218; Alexander M. Campbell (Rep.) 258 over William M. Kennedy (Dem.) for sheriff, and James M. McCollough (Rep.) 78 over William A. Lowry (Dem.) for prothonotary. Forty-five election districts have not been heard from at midnight.

Lowry's friends claim he will leave Butler borough with a lead of 600 votes and the official count may be necessary to determine the winner for prothonotary. The returns from 27 precincts are as follows:

State treasurer, T. Lee Plummer (Rep.) 1,328, William H. Berry (Dem.) 1,110; sheriff, Alexander M. Campbell (Rep.) 1,393, William M. Kennedy (Dem.) 1,135; prothonotary, James M. McCollough (Rep.) 1,300, William G. Lowry (Dem.) 1,222; county treasurer, Thomas Alexander (Rep.) 1,260, Charles C. Johnston (Dem.) 813; register and recorder, Porter Wilson (Rep.) 1,232, William B. Currie (Dem.) 773; county commissioner, William Siembert (Rep.) 1,245, Nathaniel S. Grossman (Rep.) 1,253, George F. Easley (Dem.) 862, William H. Grabe (Dem.) 789. David Cupps and William M. Scott (Rep.) have been elected auditors with indications favoring Robert A. White of Butler as the Democrat member of the board. Dr. Walter S. Patterson (Rep.) of Butler has been elected coroner over Dr. N. A. Dombert (Dem.) of Evans City.

The third-class city charter for Butler borough was defeated two to 1.

HISSES GREET THE VERDICT.

Twelve-Year-Old Boy Found Guilty of Murder by West Virginia Jury.

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—Harry Bruce, aged 12, who a few weeks ago struck William Gibson, aged 15, with a stone, crushing his skull and causing his death, was tonight found guilty of voluntary murder by a jury in criminal court. Howls and hisses mingled with the sobs of the parents of the boy when the verdict was read.

Bruce, it is said, killed Gibson as a result of a quarrel over a girl. They met at night on a public road, after Gibson had escorted the girl to her home from church.

WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC WORSE THAN SUSPECTED

Police Arrest Flashily-Dressed Youth Who Extorts Money from 22 Young Women.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Following the murder of Augusta Leicher, in West Twenty-eighth street, because, it is alleged, she refused to longer be a slave to a man of the Gerdron sort, a fearful condition has been unearthed by the detectives from Central office. In the arrest of one man, caught last night after he is alleged to have imprisoned one young girl for seven days and forced money from more than 20 others, they expect to show the "white slave" traffic is worse than it has been in years.

The girl found imprisoned by the detectives is Lillian Wills, 16 years old, who was taken from a house in West Fifty-second street, run by Mrs. Weber. The girl, in dread of her master, was in a pitiable condition.

Then the detectives began to search for her master. They arrested Ernest Striesselen, and held him on the technical charge of vagrancy. Investigating the record of this flashily-dressed youth, who is 19 years old, the detectives learned he had a record which makes him, according to them, the boldest "cadet" caught in years.

According to the Weber woman, Striesselen has imprisoned seven girls in her house. None of the girls was more than 18 years, and once a week he would call upon them and force them to give him their earnings. From another woman, known as Mrs. Boucher, supposed to conduct a house in West Forty-sixth street, it was learned, the police said Striesselen had taken 15 girls there and forced them to pay money to him.

BELLEVUE COUNCILMEN LOSE TEMPERS AND PASS LIE

The lie was passed last evening during a stormy session of Bellevue council, when that body attempted to elect a successor to the late T. Lee Clark, councilman from the Second ward. Otto Kayser, councilman from the First ward, made a motion to the effect that the sentiment of council be ascertained before an attempt be made to fill the vacancy. He said his reasons for opposing the election without an investigation was that some of the members did not always resort to honorable methods in such situations. W. B. Rodgers took offense and shouted: "If you say that I am not honorable, you are a liar." Other members of council restored order. The result of the election was not annouhced.

Annhilate Cossack Companies.

KUTAIS, CAUCASUS, Nov. 7.—Cossacks who were escorting M. Lazarenko, a county official, and M. Pekarski, a justice of the peace, were ambushed in the Ozurgetti district by revolutionaries who were fighting the troops sent to the district to restore order. Two entire companies, consisting of 107 and 120 men, respectively, were wiped out.

HOLT CARRIES BEAVER BY A SMALL MAJORITY

Entire Fusion Ticket Seems to Have Won With Phenomenal Vote Cast.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

BEAVER, PA., Nov. 7.—Thirty-eight precincts heard from give R. S. Holt, the Democrat-Citizen-Prohibition candidate for judge, a majority of 422 over J. Rankin Martin, his Republican adversary.

The like of the present campaign was never seen before in the county and the vote polled is one-fourth larger than the Roosevelt vote. A majority of 1,000 was conceded the Republicans, the betting odds were 100 to 75.

The remainder of the ticket is in doubt, but it seems as though all the Fusion candidates have won, including J. C. Hillman for treasurer, J. S. Groscost for sheriff, G. M. Pierce for clerk of courts, John Black and J. P. Corcoran for county commissioners, Dr. J. S. Wade for coroner.

At 1 o'clock 11 of the 25 precincts give Holt 3,575 and Martin 2,995, a majority of 850.

HOMESICK GIRL ENDS HER LIFE AT VASSAR COLLEGE

Body of Miss Emily Ensign of Youngstown, Ohio, Found in Pond in School Grounds.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—Homesick and despondent Miss Emily Ensign committed suicide yesterday at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where she had been attending Vassar college. She wrote recently to her mother telling her of her homesickness and saying "Pray for me."

Her mother had spent some time at Vassar with her daughter who entered this fall. Later her father, C. A. Ensign, paid her a visit. Her friends here had written to friends at Vassar urging them to assist her to recover from her homesickness, but they wrote that it was of no avail.

At Vassar she roomed with a girl of like temperament who was compelled to leave college on account of her homesickness. Miss Ensign was born in 1885. She was graduated valedictorian of her class from Rayen High school last summer. She was an artist in water colors of ability and had recently entered society. Her father is a wealthy druggist.

Mr. Ensign and C. R. Trusedale went to Poughkeepsie early this morning to bring home the body.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Nov. 7.—The body of Miss Emily Ensign of Youngstown, O., a member of the freshman class at Vassar college, was found in the college lake at 1 o'clock this morning. Immediately after the finding of the body the faculty attempted to trace Miss Ensign's movements of yesterday afternoon. They were able to learn little in addition to the fact that she had complained of a headache, and had taken some headache powders which she had brought to the college from her home. The theory of an overdose which temporarily affected her mind, is the only one suggested.

THE HOUSEHOLD'S GREAT SIGN

Father Pitt and Miss Allegheny in Colored Effect Adorn the Front of the "Household's" Store.

The other day the management of the Household Furniture store flung open to public gaze a massive sign board portraying the unity of Pittsburgh and Allegheny. Aside of the originally intended significance of the painting, it has been adopted by the "Household's" as an emblem denoting Greater Pittsburgh's Greatest Bargain house. For the later use the idea is an appropriate one and as such it serves its purpose splendidly.

What Sulphur Does

For the Human Body in Health and Disease.

The mention of sulphur will recall to many of us the early days when our mothers and grandmothers gave us our daily dose of sulphur and molasses every spring and fall.

It was the universal spring and fall "blood purifier," tonic and cure-all, and, mind you, this old-fashioned remedy was not without merit.

The idea was good, but the remedy was crude and unpalatable, and a large quantity had to be taken to get any effect.

Nowadays we get all the beneficial effects of sulphur in a palatable, concentrated form, so that a single grain is far more effective than a tablespoonful of the crude sulphur.

In recent years research and experiment have proven that the best sulphur for medicinal use is that obtained from Calcium (Calcium Sulphide) and sold in drug stores under the name of Stuart's Calcium Wafers. They are small chocolate coated pellets and contain the active medicinal principle of sulphur in a highly concentrated, effective form.

Few people are aware of the value of this form of sulphur in restoring and maintaining bodily vigor and health: Sulphur acts directly on the liver and excretory organs and purifies and enriches the blood by the prompt elimination of waste material.

Our grandmothers knew this when they dosed us with sulphur and molasses every spring and fall, but the crudity and impurity of ordinary flours of sulphur were often worse than the disease, and cannot compare with the modern concentrated preparations of sulphur, of which Stuart's Calcium Wafers is undoubtedly the best and most widely used.

They are the natural antidote for liver and kidney troubles and cure constipation and purify the blood in a way that often surprises patient and physician alike.

Dr. R. M. Wilkins while experimenting with sulphur remedies soon found that the sulphur from Calcium was superior to any other form. He says: "For liver, kidney and blood troubles, especially when resulting from constipation or malaria, I have been surprised at the results obtained from Stuart's Calcium Wafers. In patients suffering from boils and pimples and even deep-seated carbuncles, I have repeatedly seen them dry up and disappear in four or five days, leaving the skin clear and smooth. Although Stuart's Calcium Wafers is a proprietary article and sold by druggists and for that reason tabooed by many physicians, yet I know of nothing so safe and reliable for constipation, liver and kidney troubles and especially in all forms of skin diseases as this remedy."

At any rate people who are tired of pills, cathartics and so-called blood "purifiers," will find in Stuart's Calcium Wafers a far safer, more palatable and effective preparation.

MOBS MURDER AND DEVASTATE

Hundreds Are Killed and Thousands Wounded in Southern Russian Cities.

WITTE HAS LITTLE SUPPORT

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ODESSA, Nov. 7.—The mobs completely devastated, plundered and burned all the Jewish houses in the suburb of Dalnik. In the larger villages of Severinovka and Anatolievka and the towns of Ovidiopol, Maiaki, Akkerman, Atkai, Olivopol and Winitza many hundreds of persons are reported to have been killed and thousands wounded.

Four hundred and twelve Jews, victims of the massacres of last week, were buried today. A majority of the shops were closed, including many of those belonging to Christians. The scenes of grief were heartrending and almost indescribable as the bodies were placed in trenches, each trench containing 70. Similar funerals will continue for three days.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 7.—Count Witte continues to complain bitterly of the lack of confidence manifested toward him by all the elements of the opposition at a time when he stands so much in need of the support of the Liberals. He said to M. Petrunkevitch:

"I find myself confronted by a mighty ocean and with only a cockle shell on the shore. You say this boat will carry me across to the other shore and I enter it, because there is no other craft in sight."

Only One Supporter.

The count added that he believed "If Christ himself were at the head of the government the opposition would not believe in him," and said that at the present juncture the only person who was seconding his endeavor to introduce the new regime in a completely loyal spirit was Gen. Trepoff.

The Slovo, which now styles itself the "advocate of the party of order," is earnestly appealing to the Liberals to hold up the hands of Count Witte, declaring it is time for the forces of destruction to cease and to join in the work of construction.

Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaievitch is the only member of the imperial family backing Count Witte. He went to Peterhoff at the latter's suggestion during the critical time just before the issuance of the manifesto of October 30, while Count Alexis Ignatieff, a member of the council of the empire, and M. Goremykin, former minister of the interior, were struggling to prevent any yielding to the popular demands. The grand duke never ceased to exercise his influence in favor of Count Witte.

When the count on the Sunday preceding the issuance of the manifesto left Peterhof in disgust, the grand duke induced the emperor to reconsider his decision and to dispatch Gen. Baron W. Fredericks, minister of the imperial house, in an automobile to St. Petersburg at 2 o'clock in the morning to again summon Count Witte, who on the memorable Monday returned to Peterhof and secured the emperor's signature to the historic document.

Charge Witte With Bribery.

Some of Count Witte's enemies are now spreading a report that he was bribed by the Jews. The Russ, which is conducting a campaign for the downfall of Gen. Trepoff, declares that unless the general be immediately removed the country will succumb to a military dictatorship.

The new issue in Russia will be marked by a change from the Julian to the Gregorian calendar. The use of the old calendar, which is 13 days behind that of other civilized countries, has been the cause of infinite confusion. The academy of sciences has already submitted a plan to shorten the Russian February by 13 days and to begin March 1 in the new style.

Now that the crisis in Finland is virtually over it develops that the revolutionary Socialists had complete control of the situation. The militia in possession of Helsingfors and other towns kept a firm grip on all means of communication, and prevented the news of what was happening reaching the Russian authorities. The whole country was in a ferment of excitement, and was fed upon reports that the Russian people had set up a republic and that thousands of men and even women were making their way from the interior toward the cities with arms to join in a war for freedom.

EXCEEDS LAST YEAR.

Pittsburgh Brewing Company's Annual Report Made Today Will Make a Better Showing.

The annual meeting of the Pittsburgh Brewing Company will be held today and it can be stated on authority that the report presented by the directors will show a year considerably better in all respects than 1904. Whether the increase will be large enough to equal the company's best year, 1903, overcoming the big slump of 1904, cannot be stated.

The total number of barrels of beer sold in 1902 was 1,021,708. In 1903 the total was 1,040,792, while in 1904 it was only 801,161. The gross receipts for 1904 were $5,490,105. It is expected that they will be close to $7,000,000 this year.

Brooks of Colorado Springs, Mo., the man who started the legislative investigation in the Missouri legislature resulting in the arrest of the boodlers as well as those in the city councils of St. Louis, will speak at today's noon meeting at the old Third Presbyterian church, Sixth avenue, under the auspices of the simultaneous revival committee of the Christian church. THE decorations were a feature of the wedding of Miss Mary Worthington and William Terrill Johnston, which took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Worthington, in Forbes street, Oakland. The ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. Maitland Alexander, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, the bridal party standing before an exquisitely beautiful screen of Japanese embroidery, above which hung a heavy curtain of immense white chrysanthemums, stretching across the entire width of the room. Drooping above the center of the screen was a huge cluster of the same blooms, placed just a little in front of the flower curtain. White "mums" and maidenhair ferns banked the mantel and above the double doors leading to the dining room was an arch of the white flowers with smilax. Marking the pathway of the bridal party over the white crashed floor was a long Kirmanshirah rug, one of the most valuable in a rich collection owned by Mr. Worthington. The bridal table was laid with covers for eight and had a centerpiece of Kaiserine roses and lilies of the valley with pansies scattered over the cloth. Four smaller tables were arranged about the larger one, each having as a centerpiece a basket filled with white blossoms. The large verandas surrounding the house were enclosed and smilax-trimmed, and here were set small tables at which the guests were served. A variety of vari-colored blossoms were used as centerpieces.

The bride, given away by her father, was gowned in white chiffon cloth with rose point and duchesse lace trimmings. Her tulle veil was tied in a double bow, her only ornament was a diamond pendant and white violets and orchids formed her bouquet. Miss Laura Worthington, a cousin, was maid of honor, and Mrs. Roy B. McKee and Mrs. Edward H. Sutton, as bridesmatrons, wore dainty gowns of white mull and valenciennes lace with girdles of yellow satin. They carried yellow chrysanthemums tied with bows of yellow chiffon. The bridal procession was completed by the best man, Guy Johnston, a brother, and the ushers, Roy B. McKee and Edward H. Closer Union of Womens' Clubs.

Sixteen clubs were represented at the quarterly meeting of the permanent civic committee yesterday afternoon in the chapel of the Methodist Building in Penn avenue. As a result of this meeting a circular letter will be issued in a couple of weeks asking the co-operation of the individual clubs in forming a closer federation of clubs in Allegheny county. The idea is to abolish the old permanent civic committee of Women's clubs in Western Pennsylvania, an organization which has never been in real close touch with the clubs throughout this end of the state. In its place the women at the meeting yesterday considered the organization of a civic committee or federation of the women's clubs in Allegheny county in which each club should be represented by its president, through virtue of her office, or by some other representative. In this way the actions of each quarterly meeting would be carried immediately back to the club, which in turn would instruct its president or delegate how to act when the matter should be brought up at the next meeting of the federation committee. The circular letter will be issued by the committee, appointed yesterday, which is composed of Miss Kate C. MacKnight, Mrs. Levi Bird Duff, Mrs. Mattie Patterson, Mrs. Alfred Longmore and Miss Helen Grimes. The clubs will be asked to respond and a meeting to take up the matter of more formal organization will be held in December. The annual meeting of the permanent civic committee occurs early in the year. At the meeting yesterday the matter of the adulteration of food was also taken up, and the clubs will be urged to take part in a general movement of club women all over the country to urge President Roosevelt to embody in his annual message to congress a request for legislation on the pure food question. The women also expressed themselves as opposed to an elevated railroad in Liberty avenue, and will urged the construction of a sub-way to the East End.

Plea for College Education.

A plea for more practical work in the curriculum of the women's college, by Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, was presented before the Woman's club of Pittsburgh yesterday afternoon at its regular meeting. Mrs. Decker, the president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, has raised her voice in an effort to secure more opportunity for domestic science study and the training of college girls in the art of home-making, in an article, "Ought the College Education of Women to Be More Practical?" which was read yesterday afternoon by Mrs. S. G. Rosenstock. The general subject for the afternoon was American colleges for women. Mrs. Sarah Archer read a paper on "The Advantages of a College-bred Woman Outside of the Learned Professions." Reports of delegates and members of the club who were present at the State Federation meeting in Cambridge Springs were made. The arrangements for the anniversary luncheon to be given in the Schenley on Wednesday afternoon, November 22, were announced. The luncheon will commemorate the thirtieth anniversary of the founding of the club.

Opening Meeting of Tuesday Musical.

The opening recital of the Tuesday Musical club this season was an unusually enjoyable affair yesterday afternoon. The ball-room of the Schenley was filled with the club members, while an artists' recital was presented by Miss Genevieve Wheat, soprano, and Luigi von Kunits, violin. The program presented the two artists in strong solo numbers, closing with a group of songs by Miss Wheat with violin obligato by Mr. von Kunits. The number which seemed to meet the most cordial reception of the audience were Miss Wheat's song, "My Love, He Comes on the Skees," to which she responded with a charming Scotch song. Mr. von Kunits played one of his own compositions, "Scot's Lullaby," as an encore to an Adagio by Spohr.

Alleged Forger Will Be Released.

Superintendent of Detectives McQuaide was notified yesterday by the Boston police that they will not send an officer here for Charles N. Oldham, who is under arrest on a charge of forgery. He committed forgery while in the employ of a bicycle firm in Boston some years ago and the case has been settled. Oldham will be released.

"LIQUID BREAD"

"Beer is Liquid Bread." This statement was made by the renowned Liebig, to whose researches early in the Nineteenth Century modern chemistry owes much of its present advancement.

There's a reason for Liebig's statement.

Carbohydrates form the bulk of the valuable food-properties of both bread and beer.

However, the carbohydrates of bread are chiefly starch.

The digestion of starch depends on thorough mastication that the saliva may transform it into grape-sugar.

Few people masticate their food properly, therefore starch indigestion is common.

The carbohydrates of Duquesne, American, Lutz and First National beers are in the form of nutritious dextrine and natural malt-sugars. These are immediately utilized by the human body.

Now this is not all. Our beers and spicy nut-brown ales act as a solvent on starch, greatly aiding in its digestion.

AMERICAN SECURITIES HIGHER IN LONDON

The Largest Gains Were in Reading, the Harriman Stocks and the U. S. Steel Issues—No Change in the London Discount Rates

Stock markets in this country were closed yesterday for the election day holiday, and there was no business transacted by the banks. Brokers' offices were also closed during the greater part of the day. The gossip among traders indicated a pretty general feeling that the election of McClellan in New York would mean a strong opening in Wall street this morning, while the election of Hearst might be followed by a weak market, temporarily at least. Conservative brokers feel that no matter what the election results, an active bull market at this time would be dangerous, because of the strain on the money market. In the last New York bank statement one bank, the National City, held a surplus reserve of $3,669,929, which was $1,315,650 more than the surplus reported by all the members of the association. In other words, the New York banks are already below the legal reserve line, and are therefore in no position to expand loans. On the contrary, they are likely to call in loans in order to restore the legal reserve, and in that event liquidation in the stock market would not be unlikely.

The London market for American securities yesterday was strong in spots, but the net changes indicated narrow fluctuations. Discount rates in the London market were unchanged, call loans being nominally quoted at 2@3 per cent; short bills at 4@4⅛ per cent, and three months' bills in the open market at 4 per cent, which is the same as the minimum rate of the Bank of England. There is a possibility that at the regular weekly meeting of the governors of the bank tomorrow, the rate will be raised to 4½ per cent, following the advance by the Imperial Bank of Germany last Saturday.

The largest advance in the London market yesterday was 1 per cent for Reading. The Harriman stocks were firm, Southern and Union Pacific each closing ⅞ per cent higher. Pennsylvania, Louisville & Nashville and the Erie issues closed unchanged. United States Steel common closed ½ higher and the preferred ⅞ higher.

Following shows the closing quotations yesterday and the net change compared with the close on Monday:

Depositors in Insolvent Banks.

In its department of "Replies and Decisions," the New York Commercial Bulletin has the following, which may be of interest to some of the depositors of the Enterprise National bank:

If a bank fails while holding a depositor's note I understand that he is bound to pay only the difference between his deposit and note. Is this true in all cases, or only of certain kinds of notes, and is there any way in which the depositor's right can be defeated? D. D.

Reply—The theory on which debts mutually owing are allowed to be set off against each other is that it would be inequitable to compel one debtor to pay while the other was left free to pay or not according to the measure of his willingness and ability. This reason is especially strong where one of the parties is positively known to be unable to pay his debt. Those who owe him may set off against their indebtedness any claims they may have against the insolvent. If a bank fails holding a depositor's note, the latter may apply his deposit, as far as it will go toward the payment of his note, and he can be compelled to pay only the balance, if any, in money. If his note is negotiable and is held by any other person or institution he cannot avail himself of this right of set-off simply upon the ground that the note was once in the possession of a bank now insolvent. The rule is necessary in order that negotiable paper may have the desirable currency and may pass freely from hand to hand without regard to any equities that may have existed between the original parties to the note.

United States Steel preferred will be quoted ex-dividend of 1¾ per cent today. The dividend is payable November 30. On the basis of Monday's final sale, the stock should open at about 103⅛.

New Strike in the Bisbee Camp.

The Calumet office of the Calumet & Arizona Company announces a second important strike of ore this week in the company's Buckeye claim at Bisbee, where the most important disclosures since the Oliver shaft reached the ore was uncovered about three weeks ago. There is strong evidence that the strike just made is in the same ore body that was disclosed three weeks ago. If this theory proves correct, the deposit is of great size.

The new strike was encountered in the crosscut which has for a long time been driving northward from the Cole shaft of the Lake Superior & Pittsburgh toward the Oliver shaft of the Calumet & Arizona. This crosscut sometime ago reached the Buckeye claim and has been operating in it since then.

The strike of three weeks ago was made in a crosscut driving in a general southerly direction from the Oliver shaft and operating in the Buckeye claim. This was on the 1,150-foot level of the Oliver shaft. The strike just made in the Buckeye, in the north crosscut from the 1,000-foot level of the Cole shaft, is at a depth which corresponds with the 1,225 in the Oliver shaft, and is therefore 75 feet below the former disclosure.

The character of the ore in all respects is the same in both workings, and the position and trend of the ground are such as to give, in connection with the other conditions, strong testimony in favor of its being one body of ore. The crosscut from the Oliver shaft into the Buckeye at the 1,150 foot level passed through 80 feet of ore.

Electric Business Booming.

It is semi-officially stated that the ordinary business of the Westinghouse Electric Company for October, exclusive of the large contracts booked during the month, was the largest for any October in the history of the company. The business for the September quarter was larger than any corresponding quarter in previous years. A rough estimate places the total business for the calendar year 1905 at between 50 and 60 per cent larger than the total for 1904. The Westinghouse Electric Company is now employing between 10,000 and 11,000 men, and some of the departments are running day and night.

FAIR MORNING TRADE, BUT AFTERNOON DULL

Election Day Has Depressing Influence on Business—Advance in Cranberries.

There was not a new feature in the local markets yesterday. Trade during the morning was fair, but the afternoon trade amounted to almost nothing. No new arrivals are noted although prices in several departments changed somewhat.

There is a good call for grape fruit, which is to be had at $4 and $4 50, and the Florida brand at $4 50 to $5.

Honey of all grades is now obtainable on the local market at various prices. Combed, white clover, fancy, is 17 to 18 cents a pound; choice, 15 to 16 cents, and buckwheat, 15 to 16 cents.

Cranberries took another advance yesterday. Box cranberries are now $2 75 to $3 25, and barrels are 11 to 12 cents.

Kalamazoo celery is off the market, as is York State. Ohio celery, in large and small bunches, took an advance of about 5 cents.

Jobbers raised the price on apples yesterday 50 cents on all varieties.

Foreign Money Markets.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Money was fairly abundant in the market today. There was much uncertainty regarding the condition of the market when the loans due to the Bank of England November 8 and November 9 are repaid. It is expected that portion must be renewed. Discounts were firm. Trading on the stock exchange was quiet with an irregular tendency in the absence of support. Prices improved later. Consols were steady and closed with an improvement. Americans opened firm and drifted to either side of parity with gains predominating. There were few transactions and stocks closed steady. Russians recovered slightly. Japanese imperial 6s of 1904 were quoted at 101⅜. Consols for money, 88 7-16, consols for account, 88⅝; bar silver steady, 29 11-16d per ounce; money, 2@3 per cent; the rate of discount in the open market for short bills is 4@4⅛ per cent; the rate of discount in the open market for three months' bills is 4 per cent.

PARIS, Nov. 7.—Prices on the bourse today were firmer, owing to the improvement in the internal situation of Russia. Russian imperial 4s were quoted at 91.75 and Russian bonds of 1904 at 517.00; 3 per cent rentes, 99 francs 95 centimes for the account; exchange on London, 25 francs 14½ centimes for checks.

BERLIN, Nov. 7.—Prices on the Boerse today opened weaker, but later improved somewhat. Exchange on London, 20 marks 43½ pfennigs for checks; discount rates, short bills, 4⅛ per cent; three months' bills, 4¾ per cent.

RUSSIA HAS ITS LOUISE MICHEL

William T. Stead Tells Tragic Story of Fate of the Widow Linde.

LEADS THE MOB IN REVAL

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

BERLIN, Nov. 7.—William T. Stead, fresh from Russia by way of Finland and Copenhagen, stopped over in Berlin today on his way to Paris. For an hour and a half he poured forth his vivid impression of "Hell pretty well let loose," as he called it; of the things he had seen and heard, and the "ghastly welter into which Russian society has drifted."

"Strange things are happening," said Mr. Stead. "Think of the incidents at Reval. Some determined persons marched down the street to the town hall, followed by a crowd. There the mayor and councilmen were sitting, deliberating on the situation. In came our determined friends.

"'We demand liberty,' they said, 'universal suffrage and the right to rule ourselves.'

"'But,' said the mayor, 'I cannot give you these things. I would gladly send your petition to the emperor.'

"'Well,' continued the delegates, 'we are delegates of a revolution and if we do not get what we want we have decided to burn the city. Give us 7,500 roubles.'

"The mayor and his colleagues thought it was better to pay 7,500 roubles than to have the city burned, so they raised the money, paid the delegates and the latter went away promising to be very good, and they were good. But another crowd came and said:

"'What about us? Pay us too.'

"This the mayor would not do, and they went away with threats of destruction.

The Widow Linde's Fate.

"The 'Red Virgin' of the French commune was Louise Michel. Well, in Reval a certain widow, named Linde, dressed in scarlet from top to toe, and with an ax over her shoulder, placed herself at the head of the mob. All night the revolutionists whetted themselves up. In the meantime the governor had gotten out troops, and the mob gathered in the morning, facing the soldiers in the great square.

"The governor called on the mob to disperse, and said that if after 15 minutes they did not disperse, he would order the troops to fire. Five minutes went by, and the widow Linde in red climbed a lamp post and cried out encouragement and exhorted steadfastness for the revolution. The soldiers began to call to the people to go away as, if they were ordered to fire they must do so and they did not want to kill anybody.

"'Kill him! Kill him!' screamed the widow Linde, pointing to the governor.

"Several revolver shots were fired from the crowd, but no one was hit. The governor, who waited to the end of the 15 minutes, then gave the command to fire, and the widow Linde, shot through the body, fell to the ground as Baron Euxull, an eye witness, told me, 'like a sparrow from a twig.' One hundred and five dead persons were picked up from the square and 30 more died in the hospitals.

More Bloodshed Coming.

"The coolest man in Russia is the emperor. God grant he may keep his seat, that the liberals may gather about him and they may resist the forces of dissolution. His authority is shaken, passions are loose and things are likely to be worse. There may be fearful slaughterings. As an optimist, I think 100,000 lives may fall. If I were pessimistic I would say 2,000,000. The situation is something like this:

"The police, gendarmes and Cossacks have been suppressing a revolution in the name of the emperor. Suddenly, they say, the emperor goes over to the liberal side and he thinks more of those who want to vote and who are doing everything in the way of meeting and agitation which the police were taught to believe was unlawful, than he does of them. As simply human nature, the police and gendarmes say:

"'Oh! very well. If the emperor's new friends act like this, it is no cause of ours.'

"And when the police are indifferent, 'the Hooligans' break loose and Toryism in society also breaks loose. That mass of ignorant conservatism, which only thinks of killing—the Black Hundred in Moscow—are conservatives who are offended by the liberals getting the upper hand. All through the Russian empire authority, as represented by the police, Cossacks and gendarmes is shaken, as I have said, and the forces that tend to tear society apart are at work."

Mr. Stead added that the army could no longer be depended upon. Several officers at Helsingfors had sent word to the liberals while holding a meeting that they need not be afraid, as the troops would not fire. "The liberals," he continued, "are unfortunately holding back from support of the crown at a time when every man who has a good coat on his back or a rouble in his pocket should stand by the emperor, who has placed himself on the liberal side."

SECOND SET OF CONCERTS.

Orchestra Will This Week Be Assisted by Jean Gerardy, Soloist.

The second set of Friday evening and Saturday afternoon concerts this season by the Pittsburgh orchestra will be given this week with the co-operation of Jean Gerardy, soloist. Mr. Gerardy, who has not been heard in Pittsburgh for three years, will play Saint Saens' A minor concerto, and pieces by Bach and Schubert. The heating arrangement at Carnegie Music hall, which was incomplete last week, is now finished and a normal temperature is assured for the remainder of the season.

Report of Completed Wells Light; New Work Starting in Old Fields

The report of completed wells in the lower southwest fields was very light. There being no market quotations and the oil offices generally closed, the day in oil circles was extremely dull. In the absence of any particular interest in development work, operators remained away from their usual haunts. The new work starting is located principally in the old districts. Taken as a whole there is as much new work starting in the very old districts as in the new. Butler county seems to lead in new work starting and under way.

Two miles south of the old Cooperstown district and one mile from the old Bakerstown development there is some new work starting in the vicinity of the good producer completed recently by the Crown Petroleum Company on the L. L. Morrow farm. West of the Bakerstown tunnel, in Allegheny county, there is some work in advance of developments that will be due soon. Should this work prove satisfactory it will be the incentive for renewed activity in that section.

On Elk run, Freemans Creek district, Lewis county, T. N. Barnsdall has had the rig completed for some time for a test on the C. & G. Francis farm, but has not started to drill. On Buffalo run, Grant district, Wetzel county, the Kanawha Oil Company is due in the sand at a second test on the Hart Bros. farm. On Fisk creek, Church district, Brast & Chaney are down 700 feet at a second test on the A. Kiger farm. On the same stream and in the same district, Coshran & Funk have started to drill at a test on the Emmanuel Six farm. On Pursley run, Ellsworth district, Tyler county, the Melrose Oil & Gas Company is down 500 feet at a test on the W. T. Leazer farm.

In the Yellow creek district, Calhoun county, the Eastern Oil Company's No. 3 on the R. M. Ramsberg farm is a better producer than was first indicated when drilled into the Berea grit pay. The well produced 125 barrels the first 24 hours. The location of this well is 500 feet south of the South Penn Company's No. 12 on the H. I. Jackson farm and well inside of defined limits. In the Smithfield district, Wetzel county, Smith & Carnahan have drilled their test on the G. W. Price farm through all sands and have a duster. In the Burning Springs district, Wirt county, J. J. Cratty has started to drill at a test on the Wheaton & Wetzel lot. In the same district, W. C. Edwards & Co. have started to drill at No. 59 on the Rathbone Oil tract.

One mile east of the Carson pool, in Beaver county, Pa., the Tecumseh Oil & Gas Company has completed a test on the Jesse Boyd farm that is good for 5 barrels a day. The location of this test is in advance of the old development and may open an extension to the old Carson field. Across the state line, in the Turkey Foot extension, Hancock county, A. L. Lowry & Co. have completed a test on the B. P. Wylie farm and have a duster in the Berea grit. In the same district, Charles Foss & Co. have completed No. 14 on the William Lee farm and have a show for a light pumper. In the Georgetown district, Beaver county, James Murray has completetd a second test on the Webb heirs' farm and has a duster.

On the Ohio side, in the Woodfield district, Monroe county, Urquhart & Co. have completed their No. 7 on the Rouse heirs' farm and have a show for a 15-barrel pumper in the Big Lime formation. In the Payne district, Washington county, the Char-Par Oil Company has drilled its No. 6 on the E. D. Bake farm through the Berea grit and has a light pumper. D. A. Dye & Son have drilled a test on the C. J. Minnick farm through the same formation and will have a 5-barrel pumper.

PRINCE LOUIS VISITS MODEL NAVAL ACADEMY

Thinks This Country Has a School Which Is Finest He Ever Saw.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

ANNAPOLIS, MD., Nov. 7.—Rear Admiral Prince Louis of Battenberg, under the guidance of Rear Admiral Sands, superintendent of the naval academy, made a thorough inspection of the academy this forenoon. He was accompanied by his personal staff.

"I want to see everything there is to be seen about the academy," said the prince, and his wish was carried out to the letter. He went in several classes and was interested in hearing part of the recitations. He inspected Bancroft hall from top to bottom and declared it to be one of the finest buildings he had ever seen. He saw the temporary mausoleum where the body of John Paul Jones waits the completion of the great chapel beneath whose choir it will find its final resting place. The hospital, the steam engineering building, the administration building, the boat house, which is also to be used for a gymnasium, were also visited by the prince. His highness told Admiral Sands the American nation was rightly proud of such an institution, which he could see was the key to the thorough and broad equipment of the American naval officers.

Sir Mortimer Durand, the British ambassador, arrived here this morning in a special train, accompanied by his staff and is the guest of Admiral Prince Louis on board the Drake.

This afternoon the prince leaves for Baltimore in a special train, returning tonight. The British ships are scheduled to sail tomorrow morning at 6 o'clock for New York.

At the eleventh hour the orders to Rear Admiral Brownson's squadron were changed and his ships got under way early this morning for New York. Only the Mayflower remains and she is expected to sail sometime today for North river. No reason is known in Annapolis for the change in orders to the cruiser squadron.

GEN. FITZGERALD'S SON IS KILLED BY A TRAIN

Young Man Is Returning from a Steeplechase in Which His Horse Was Injured and Had to Be Shot.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Louis Fitzgerald, Jr., son of Gen. Lewis Fitzgerald, was killed this afternoon at the Great Neck station of the Long Island railroad. He was struck by an eastbound train as he was crossing the tracks to board a train for New York, after the amateur steeplechase and pony races in Nirvana, the country home of W. Gould Brokaw, Great Neck, L. I.

Mr. Fitzgerald was killed within an hour after he had ridden his mare Tiger Lily in the fourth race, in which the jumper broke her leg and had to be shot.

The pilot of the engine struck Mr. Fitzgerald and threw him across the rails several feet ahead of the locomotive. Before the train could be stopped the forward trucks of the locomotive had passed over the young man's body just below the hips. He lived only a few minutes.

Finds Shoe With Foot Inside.

Terence McGovern, aged 33, who went from Pittsburgh to Marion, O., three weeks ago, was killed by a train near that city yesterday. Ola Richel, an acquaintance of McGovern, found the latter's shoe containing a foot along the tracks, and a little farther on found McGovern, who was still living. He died soon afterward in a hospital. A sister of the dead man, Mrs. Bridget Curley, lives in Bay alley, this city.

Powder Explosion Kills Four.

MRS. CHADWICK MUST SERVE LONG TERM

United States Court of Appeals Refuses to Grant Her a New Trial.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 7.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick has lost her last hope for a new trial, unless the supreme court of the United States shall consent to allow a rehearing. The United States circuit court of appeals today refused her application for a new trial. The lengthy opinion of the court was read by Judge Lurton.

Mrs. Chadwick is now in the jail at Cleveland, under sentence to the Ohio penitentiary for 10 years, for conspiring to defraud under the national banking law. The case was brought to the United States circuit court of appeals on a writ of error, sentence was suspended pending the decision of the appeal and the hearing of the case was expedited by the court, being placed at the head of the October calendar. Arguments were heard October 3 and 4.

In closing his decision, Judge Lurton declared that Mrs. Chadwick ought to have known it was wrong to draw checks on a bank when she knew she had no money on deposit there and that the inference drawn by the jury in the trial court that she did the acts with intent to defraud was a proper one.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 7.—Mrs. Chadwick was in consultation with her attorney, Jay P. Dawley, when the news of the decision was brought to her. She made no demonstration whatever and scarcely no comment, allowing Mr. Dawley to speak for her.

"This means they have beaten us," said Mr. Dawley. "It would scarcely be advisable for us to say anything concerning the decision at the present time. What the next step will be I cannot tell now, but of course I shall do something to safeguard the interests of my client. I am naturally disappointed in the outcome. I did not think that the court, in view of all the facts presented, could come to any other decision than in favor of Mrs. Chadwick."

COX QUITS POLITICS.

Cincinnati Leader Announces His Retirement from Active Service in the Republican Party.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 7.—George B. Cox tonight gave out the following statement withdrawing from active service in the Republican party:

Now that the election is over and the people have signified their preference for city, county and state officials, and I sincerely trust they have selected wisely, I wish to announce to the public that from this day, after 25 years of active service in the ranks of the Republican party, my personal activity in politics shall cease. I will continue to vote the Republican ticket, but others must bear the burden of future campaigns. To the local Republican organization and the many friends that have stood with us in the past, I tender most grateful thanks for their unswerving loyalty and support. I hope for their future good will.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE B. COX.

DAHLIA STREET SALE OF $27,000

Fine Residence Site Disposed Of—Total of $180,000 in Six Months in One Square.

BIG EAST LIBERTY LEASE

The Commonwealth Real Estate Company yesterday sold for O. M. Edwards a site 114x175 feet at the southeast corner of Dahlia and Pitcairn streets, Twentieth ward, for $27,000. As announced the purchasers are two prominent local business men whose names are withheld for the present. Each buyer will have plans drawn at once for a residence to cost in the neighborhood of $20,000. The plot sold is directly opposite Von Lent place, surveyed through the property of S. S. Marvin some time ago. Last summer the Commonwealth sold for Mr. Marvin to Ralph Longenecker and others a part of the frontage in Von Lent place and Dahlia street for $45,000, and part to J. T. Lazear and others for $25,000. Since then a considerable portion of the property bought by Mr. Longenecker has been resold through the same agency to W. M. Kennedy of the Commonwealth Trust Company, G. Cooke Kimball and Julia K. Kelly for $31,800. Mr. Kennedy's lot has been sold again by them for $30,750 to William McKelvy. Mr. Marvin has also sold to Ralph Longenecker and Southard Hay a large lot at the southwest corner of Dahlia and Pitcairn streets for $30,000. This makes a total of about $180,000 worth of property in this block which the Commonwealth has disposed of during the past six months. The buyers have all been business or professional men, some of whom have already arranged for the building of handsome residences and all of whom bought their lots for home sites.

New Rent Prices in East End.

All records for high rentals in East Liberty have been broken by the leasing of the first floor and basement of the Anna M. Goedell building at 6125-6127 Penn avenue for six years at a rental of $600 a month, or $7,200 a year. The lease was negotiated by Joseph T. O'Donnell and the lessee is the firm of H. Cohn & Sons, drygoods merchants, who are now located at 9 Frankstown avenue in what is known as the Beehive store. The building leased is at the northwest corner of Penn and Collins avenues, and measures 40x100 feet. H. Cohn & Sons will take possession January 1 after thoroughly remodeling the place for a first-class store room. The former lease on the property, which had run for five years, was at the rate of only $350 a month, so that the new rental is nearly double the former rate. The Cohn firm will probably sub-let the place it now occupies. The Goedell building was occupied until lately by Albert J. Mansmann, who has moved into his new building at 5817-5819 Penn avenue.

Through the agency of Avey & Irish the Wabash-Pittsburgh Terminal Railroad Company has leased to Sells, Schwab & Co. of Chicago the two-story brick store building to be erected at the southwest corner of Ferry street and Third avenue for three years at $4,000 a year. The building will measure 43x136 feet, so that the firm will pay about 10 cents a square foot a year for rent. Sells, Schwab & Co. will establish in the new building its agency for Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania.

Emory Church Deal Progresses Rapidly.

At a meeting of the official board of the Emory Methodist Episcopal church Monday evening it was voted to sell the church property at North Highland avenue and Broad street, as published in The Gazette last Saturday. The exact price is $145,000 and the buyer, Oswald Werner, who expects to provide some temporary store buildings on the lot preliminary to erecting a costly business block later on. The proposed sale was announced to the congregation last Sunday and will have to be announced again next Sunday. Tonight the incorporators of the church, including every member 21 years of age or older who has been allied with the congregation for a year, will meet to discuss the matter. It is possible that a vote will be taken at this time leaving only the formal closing of the deal until after next Sunday's services. It is probable also that a building committee will be named to look after the erection of the new church on the Dr. Fulton lot at North Highland avenue and Rippey street, the deal for which was closed last week. Both deals were handled through the office of George S. Kelly of the East End, his salesman, W. A. Tellyberger, having been working on the matter for months. The church will retain possession for one year.

Through the office of C. G. Mitchell the residence of A. W. Probst, the East End tailor, has been sold to J. W. Dunkle, United States district attorney, for $14,000. The house is an 11-room reception-hall brick dwelling on 50x111 feet, facing in Grafton street, near Highland avenue, Nineteenth ward, and will be occupied by the purchaser as a home. Mr. Probst bought it lately through the same agency.

New Plans for Big Brewery.

The Mutual Union Brewing Company is having plans revised by Engineer William Greeser for the five-story brick brewery which it will erect at Aliquippa.

Architects Price & McLanahan of Philadelphia have plans for the brick and stone express building for the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago Railroad Company at Federal street and Stockton avenue, Allegheny, to cost $15,000.

Plans are being prepared by Architect Titus de Bobula for six concrete fire proof apartment houses to be built in Frank street, near Greenfield avenue, by E. M. O'Neill.

Architect James T. Steen has plans for the two-story brick garage for the Highland Automobile Company in Center avenue, near South Negley avenue. The building will cost about $25,000.

W. M. Craig has purchased 1,000 acres of coal, part with the surface and part only the coal, in Center and Armstrong townships, Indiana county. The property is located on the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh railroad, and on the Indiana branch of the Pennsylvania railroad. It was bought for an investment and cost from $40 to $100 per acre.

Chadwick place: Davies & Green sold for Miss Mary S. Burkle to Andrew McClain and George Deber three brick veneered houses on 48.5x100 feet in Grotto street, Chadwick place, for $5,800. The same firm through its agent, I. O. McMinn, sold for E. W. Houston to Mrs. M. A. Long, 40x52 feet in Llewellyn place, near Lincoln avenue, Twenty-first ward, for $1,400.

Millvale: W. L. Scott & Co. sold for A. A. Spivey to W. J. Savage four lots, 25x150 feet each, in Friday street, Millvale, for $2,500.

Pitcairn: Henry W. Armstrong through C. S. Reed sold to William S. Harkness 25x100 feet on the south side of Second street, Pitcairn, for $1,050.

RAISE FUND FOR VICTIMS OF MOBS

Jews of New York Collect Fifty-Six Thousand Dollars for Russian Sufferers.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—At a mass meeting of Jewish residents of this city held here today $56,900 was collected for the relief of the sufferers of the massacres in Russia and a relief society was formally organized, with Oscar S. Strauss, former minister to Turkey as president, Cyrus Sulzberger, secretary, and Jacob H. Schiff, treasurer.

The meeting was attended by representatives from all stations in life of the Hebrew citizens. Dispatches from London, Paris and Berlin expressed a willingness on the part of the populace to co-operate and to form an international society upon the completion of the organization in this city.

The movement in London is in the hands of Lord Rothschild, in Paris of the Jewish Colonial association, and in Berlin of the Berliner Hilsverein. A dispatch from Paul Nathan, vice president of the latter organization, announced that he would start at once for Russia. It is proposed to distribute the moneys collected by the movement through the diplomatic agencies of Great Britain, and Mr. Schiff announced that Lord Lansdowne had been communicated with on this point.

Mr. Schiff favored the use of the money for the relief of all sufferers, whether Jews or Christians. Prof. Gotheil argued that this was a meeting of Jews for the relief of Jews, and that the funds should be devoted to the relief of Jews alone. Finally it was decided that the funds should be administered by a committee of 50 to be appointed by the chair. Those who contributed to this fund with the proviso that their money should be used for the relief of the Jews should have their wishes respected, but otherwise the moneys will be used for the relief of all sufferers in Russia, whether Jew or Gentile.

The subscription lists were kept open and Jacob H. Schiff was designated as the individual to whom subscriptions may be sent.

Love Triumphant

Barbara Hurst, granddaughter of the founder of Hurstville, was brought up by her father with an independence of thought always piquant and sometimes startling. She comes to Hurstville, where she meets Abijah Bead, who has devoted his life to a plan of punishment of his faithless wife, which reminds one of Nathaniel Hawthorne. They meet, of course, and the love affair that follows is entertaining and original, and rises at times to almost tragic heights. It is full of humor which, though sometimes grim, is always enjoyable.

HELP THE KIDNEYS.

Diseases of the kidneys are growing more common every day. Health reports everywhere prove it. This is due to two reasons: first, the hurry, hustle, worry, and strife of modern living overtaxes the kidneys; second, kidney diseases come on so quietly that they are commonly neglected until they become serious. If you continually overwork, overfeed, or over-drink, you are living too fast for the kidneys to keep up with their work.

The healthy human body passes off every day an ounce of urea, containing twelve grains of uric acid. The duty of the kidneys is to filter this poisonous waste out of the blood, and to the kidneys comes the blood, in an unceasing stream, to be purified. Living too fast has one of two effects—either the production of uric poisons in the body is so increased that the kidneys can't keep up with their filtering work, or the kidneys themselves, become so weakened by the strain that the filtering work is only partly done. Then the uric poisons begin to collect in the body and to attack the vital parts. First of all you feel pain in the back, headache, depression, and languor, then comes lumbago, sciatica, rheumatism, and bladder troubles.

It should be clearly understood that a little timely help for the kidneys will set them right, but continued neglect results in dropsy, sediment in the urine, too frequent, or scanty, or painful passages of urine, gravel, kidney stones, and, in time, Bright's disease, diabetes, or apoplexy.

It is plain, therefore, that in order to keep well one must keep the kidneys well, and instant attention must be given to the early warnings of kidney complaint, such as backaches, languor, and irregular passages of the urine.

Take exercise, eat plain food, and plenty of it, do not over-indulge in stimulating or spirituous drinks, and, above all, use a medicine that acts directly on the kidneys—a kidney specific and tonic. For this purpose there is no remedy so well adapted as Doan's Kidney Pills. By the willing testimony of residents of our own city, this remedy is proved a cure for bachache, and all kidney and urinary ills. Its action is mild and strengthening and it can be taken by young or old, weak or strong, without the slightest harmful effect. The best proof we can offer is testimony of residents of our own city, perhaps your own neighbors.

"THE KIDNEYS ARE THE FILTERS OF THE BLOOD—KEEP THE FILTERS OPEN"

PITTSBURGH PROOF.

Alexander Morrison, ex-treasurer of Beaver county, now employed in the postoffice, and living at 1229 Wylie avenue, Pittsburgh, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills is one of the few remedies on the market which can be depended upon. About seven years ago Mrs. Morrison was troubled with pain in her back. She doubted that it was caused by kidney complaint until I got a box of this remedy and induced her to use it. The pills relieved her of the pain before she had taken the contents of one box. I have also used them for kidney trouble with the most satisfactory results, and have often recommended them to friends who happened to complain of backache or other symptoms of kidney complaint. In fact I would not hesitate to advise sufferers from kidney complaint in any form to try Doan's Kidney Pills."

PATRONS OF WEST PENN UP IN ARMS

Rumored Cutting Off of Important Trains Arouses Commuters—Best Month for P. R. R.

LINING UP ANNUAL PASS LIST

Patrons of the passenger trains of the West Penn division of the Pennsylvania are up in arms. If some of the rumors prove true regarding changes to be made in the fall schedule, it is probable that some of the borough councils will take action. The report is in circulation among the patrons that the new schedule plans are for leaving off several important trains of the present time card. The proposed changes on all of the local divisions of the Pennsylvania were discussed by the operating officers at Altoona yesterday, but no data could be obtained. Officers of the Pennsylvania deny that any radical change is contemplated that will tend to impair the service for local patronage, but a Pittsburgh business man who travels on the West Penn said yesterday:

"The new schedule contemplates cutting off train No. 430, which leaves Allegheny at 6:15 o'clock a. m., and train No. 452, which leaves at 5:40 p. m. Coming west the railroad people want to take off train No. 453, which reaches Allegheny at 7:56 a. m., and train No. 445, which arrives at 2:28 p. m. These trains are so crowded now that the passengers think they should be equipped with straps like those in the street cars, instead of discontinuing them."

Another patron said that he had no doubt that the company intended to make such a change, as on the last November schedule the railroad cut off one train, which leaves the patrons with just the same number of trains they had 20 years ago, while the patronage is several times greater. Another commuter said that he thought the removal of well-patronized passenger trains to make way for freight would cause so many people and business firms to move to lines with better train service that in a short time the freight trains also could be taken off, so far as the local business was concerned.

Officers Inspect the C., A. & C.

A party of executive officers of the Pennsylvania lines west spent yesterday in an inspection trip over the Cleveland, Akron & Columbus railway from Columbus to Cleveland. In the party were First Vice President James McCrea (who is president of the Cleveland, Akron & Columbus), Second Vice President Joseph Wood, Third Vice President J. J. Turner, General Manager G. L. Peck and Freight Traffic Manager D. T. McCabe of the lines west, and Vice President John F. Miller, Superintendent R. C. Barnard and General Freight Agent G. W. Davis of the Columbus road. The Pittsburgh officers returned to this city from Hudson, O., on the Cleveland & Pittsburgh division. The trip is one of several that the executive officers are making over portions of the lines west that were not included in the inspections made recently by President A. J. Cassatt and the board of directors.

Lining Up Annual Pass Lists.

The various officers and their chief clerks of the Pittsburgh railroads, as well as the roads all over the country, are now busy making up their lists for annual passes over the lines. There is an immense amount of labor attached to issuing the passes. There are many forms for all of the departments as well as for exchange with other railroads. Each year must have new forms from new plates. In addition to the annual cardboards, there is considerable labor attached to making up the designs and form of the trip passes. No official word has been issued on the pass question, and it is not known whether there will be a more liberal or more strict issue than for 1905.

Rushing Work Near Connellsville.

The Baltimore & Ohio is rushing to completion considerable new track work and other improvements on the Connellsville division. One of the most important parts of the work is at the Smithfield yards, where extra yard trackage is being constructed to accommodate the growing traffic. Two miles of second track are being built on the Somerset & Cambria branch north from Rockwood. It is the intention to extend this second track to Somerset within the next year or two so as to give better facilities for the business from the thriving mountain town. Two passing sidings are being built on the Fairmont, Morgantown & Pittsburgh branch.

Concert at P. R. R. Y. M. C. A.

General Secretary M. W. Callender of the Pennsylvania railroad department of the Young Men's Christian association, is sending out notices this week for the next number of the annual entertainment course to be given at the association hall at Twenty-eighth street. This number will be given by the Lyric Glee club next Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The Lyric Glee club's success is so well known that no word need be given to attract the railroad men to hear the concert. The club will supplement its songs with readings by Miss Agnes Doyle. All railroad employes and their families are invited to the concert.

Best Earnings in P. R. R. History.

The traffic movement over the Pennsylvania system lines for the month of October was far heavier than for September, and was also heavier than for any other month in the road's history. The figures for earnings, when fully made up, promise to show the greatest single month's earnings in the history of the Pennsylvania. On last Saturday and Sunday the company handled 13,000 cars past Lewistown Junction on the main line, and a greater record was prevented solely because of a lack of cars. A traffic officer said that the movement could have been doubled had the cars been available.

Cassatt's Ruling on Electricity.

President Cassatt of the Pennsylvania is said to have made a long-waited-for ruling in regard to the adoption of electricity as motive power for passenger trains. It is said that he has ruled that just so far as it can be demonstrated that passenger trains can be operated more cheaply by electric motive power than by steam power, the Pennsylvania is prepared to equip its lines electrically.

Railroad Notes.

The Panhandle has completed a new freight house and a 75-foot platform at Crafton.

The Pennsylvania will build a new freight station at Lewiston and a new passenger and freight station at Barnsboro.

S. H. Murdock, chief clerk in the Seaboard Air Line offices here, will be married today to Miss Gertrude Sproul of Philadelphia.

Conductor P. J. Kane of Baltimore & Ohio trains Nos. 14 and 15, between Pittsburgh and Chicago Junction, is confined to his home at Warren, O., by illness.

It is said that the Wabash will take bids in a few days for the erection of 19 two-story buildings under the tracks in the Point district for commission houses.

James McCrea, first vice president of the Pennsylvania lines, went to Philadelphia to attend the monthly meeting of the Pennsylvania railroad directors today.

Division Engineer L. P. Rossiter and O. C. Castle, chief clerk to Supt. B. W. Duer, made an inspection of the Pittsburgh & Northern and Evergreen roads yesterday.

No successor has been appointed, so far as officers knew last evening, for the freight agency of the Buffalo & Allegheny Valley here in place of W. J. Peebles. A dozen names are under consideration.

D. T. McCabe, freight traffic manager of the Pennsylvania lines west, was in Chicago Monday attending a meeting of the traffic officers of the lines out of St. Louis to the east regarding the bridge arbitrary question.

The West Penn division of the Pennsylvania has placed into service seven miles of second track between Saltsburg and Tunnelton. There now remain nine miles of the single track on the freight line from Tunnelton to Blairsville.

Mrs. Carter's Engagement.

The most notable engagement of the season thus far in Pittsburgh will be the appearance of Mrs. Leslie Carter at the Belasco Monday, November 13, where she will open for two weeks, presenting two of her greatest impersonations. The advance sale of seats will open at the box office of the Belasco tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, when the sale will be limited to not more than eight seats to each purchaser. This is made necessary by reason of the small capacity of the theater and Mrs. Carter's limited stay of two weeks.

"Loveland."

There are but six more performances of "Loveland" to be given at the Belasco theater. In this production there are no less than 21 "whistleable" musical numbers, all of which have become popular this early in the week. For those who like to hear catchy music and who enjoy merriment and laughter from the time the curtain rises until the last scene, "Loveland" will be a treat.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT WRITES BIBLE SOCIETY

Ambassador Reid Speaks Feelingly of Great Americans and Religion.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

LONDON, Nov. 7.—A great meeting of the British Foreign Bible society, held at Albert hall tonight, celebrated the completion of the centenary fund. Whitelaw Reid, the American ambassador, who was one of the principal speakers, read a letter from President Roosevelt, in which the President said:

> My Dear Mr. Ambassador—May I, through you, send my hearty congratulations to the British Foreign Bible society at its centenary thanksgiving meeting. I trust that this gathering will stimulate world-wide interest in the translation and circulation of the Bible, and I am certain that all persons having the good of mankind closely at heart will feel for this effort the most sincere sympathy and good will.

Ambassador Reid said it was his privilege to join personally in the congratulations to the society, but it was a greater privilege to be the bearer of congratulations incomparably more important than his own. He said that while it was true that in the United States there was no state support of religion, and that no profession of faith was made in the Constitution, a moment's glance over the facts of history would reassure everyone of the close membership between the two great English-speaking peoples.

The ambassador quoted from the Declaration of Independence and from the sayings of Washington and Lincoln to show the current of religious thought. He said that few great leaders in the United States, and hardly more than one president, were not avowedly religious men. The "Martyred McKinley," at the height of his power and success, bowed without murmur to a death at the hands of a political assassin, merely saying: "It is God's way."

"And now," said the ambassador, "McKinley's successor, my honored chief, shows his devotion to religion and his profound sympathy with the circulation of the holy scriptures by the letter he has written on this auspicious occasion in your history. I take pleasure in placing in your hands the original letter."

FEAR LABRADOR PARTIES ARE DEAD OF STARVATION

Nothing Heard of Mrs. Hubbard, While Wallace's Expedition Is in Desperate Straits When Last Seen.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Nov. 7.—The mail boat Virginia arrived today from Northern Labrador, bringing James Richards and Peter Stevens, members of Dillon Wallace's expedition to explore the interior of Labrador. They left Wallace and Easton in September in the wildest part of Labrador.

When provisions were growing scarce, Wallace and Easton decided to attempt to reach the caribou country. Before this the party had suffered greatly owing to the scarcity of game, being on short rations for a considerable period. Richards and Stevens gave Wallace and Easton every ounce of food they could spare and suffered terrible privations themselves in reaching the coast.

The mail boat brought no news of Mrs. Hubbard's expedition, which has not been heard of since it left the coast last June. Reliable authorities along the coast express grave fear that both expeditions have perished, the season having been unusually poor for game, while snow fell on the uplands early in August.

ANNAPOLIS, MD., Nov. 7.—Midshipman James R. Branch, son of James R. Branch of the Hanover bank of New York city, who was seriously injured in a first fight with another midshipman, died today.

Midshipman Branch's fight was with Midshipman Minor Merriwether of Lafayette, Ill. It took place by arrangement on Sunday night, and was a regular pitched battle with ring and seconds. It lasted 23 rounds and ended when Branch was knocked down, and struck the right side of his head against the floor.

JACOB KAUFMANN'S WILL IS PROBATED

Leaves Large Estate to His Family and Appoints His Wife and Sons as Executors.

A number of interesting bequests were made in the will of Jacob Kaufmann, which was filed for probate with Register George H. Stengel yesterday. No value is estimated in the application for letters, although the individual items show the estate is large. The will is dated January 15, 1904.

In the first paragraph the testator bequeathed to his wife, Augusta Kaufmann, as trustee, $125,000, to be held in trust by her for the following purposes: To pay to the testator's sons, Alfred D., Raymond M., Chester C., Edwin J. and Karl C. Kaufmann, $25,000 each at a time specified in the will. Ten thousand dollars is bequeathed to Mitchell Schoenberg, a nephew, under like conditions, permitting Mrs. Kaufmann to expend whatever she thinks proper for his education. All his household effects are bequeathed to his wife. The remainder of the will reads:

"All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal and mixed, whatsoever and wheresoever I hereby give, devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Augusta Kaufmann, in lieu to her dower, to have, to enjoy and to use the entire rents, profits, issues, incomes and interest arising from and out of the same, during her natural life, with the privilege of using as much of the principal of my estate in addition to said rents, profits, issues, income and interest as she chooses to do from time to time, and at her death I hereby give, devise and bequeath, in equal proportions, share and share alike, such part of my real, personal and mixed property as may remain at the death of my said wife, to my five (5) sons, Alfred D. Kaufmann, Raymond M. Kaufmann, Chester C. Kaufmann, Edwin J. Kaufmann and Karl C. Kaufmann, their heirs and assigns forever.

"I hereby authorize and empower my said executrix, Augusta Kaufmann, alone during her life, (and my said executors, Alfred D. Kaufmann and Raymond M. Kaufmann, and their successor or successors, after the death of my said wife, but not during her life), to grant, bargain, sell, convey and dispose of any part or of the whole of my real estate, wheresoever situated, either at public or private sale, to such person or persons, corporations or partnerships and for such price or prices and upon such terms and conditions as they may deem prudent, and proper deeds of conveyance, to make, execute and deliver therefor to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, his, her or their heirs and assigns forever, freed and discharged from all trusts whatsoever.

"It is my request and I do desire that no trustee, executrix or executor herein named shall be called upon at any time to give any bond whatsoever in connection with the duties of their trust.

"I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my beloved wife, Augusta Kaufmann, and my sons, Alfred D. Kaufmann and Raymond M. Kaufmann, executrix and executors of this, my last will and testament, and in the event of the death of either of my said sons or my wife, I hereby appoint my other son, Chester C. Kaufmann, to succeed such deceased executrix or executor."
